

Drop Of Gold

Whilst me and you welcome this morning,
There are warriors lying undead;
Battling a horror, cries and mourning,
Victimized by fate, yet not afraid.

Whilst me and you rejoice this noon,
Stream of tear drops flow in vain;
Another prayer goes unheard very soon,
A savior I must be and cease this pain.

Whilst me and you celebrate this evening,
A hundred heartbeats collide a frozen death;
Shattered will by a disease so saddening,
I'd arise from grave and restore their faith.

Whilst you would pray to angels tonight,
I'd be the Jesus to every crippling sight;
My veins shall serve the Holy vine,
A hundred heartbeats shall forever dine.

Whilst staring the scars I behold,
The doom of a martyr is already destined;
Before my farewell, remember the drop of gold,
Your blood that induces a life so defined.
