Seven Deadly Sins Issues In Clinical Practice And Supervision For Humanistic And Integrative Practitioners:

The Seven Deadly Sins? Anne Kearns, 2018 The Seven Deadly Sins? Anne Kearns, 2018-05-08 The Seven Deadly Sins grew out of a post qualification training course of the same name It aims to make more accessible some concepts from the world of psychoanalysis self psychology and affective neuroscience as well as commenting on the challenge of working in the real world This is achieved by offering an integrative and anecdotal perspective on issues that have been generally un or under explored in trainings that have a humanistic emphasis issues such as envy shame love and hate trauma addiction money and eating disorders These issues are illustrated through the judicious use of clinical case studies Various maps are provided to assist the supervisor and clinician in holding opposing diagnostic models and in working with psychotherapy and counselling trainees The chapters can be read in isolation which makes the book an ideal tool for the supervisor and clinician to use in response to specific issues Creative Ethical Practice in Counselling & Psychotherapy Patti Owens, Bee Springwood, Michael Wilson, 2012-03-22 Can I be a creative therapist without overstepping boundaries and risking complaints Can I practise safely and ethically whilst remaining true to my humanistic values This book answers Yes by offering a safety net to trainees and therapists working in the context of today's complaints culture Exploring what safe and creative practice means in relation to the key cornerstones in therapy the authors offer practical guidance to assist the reader in reflecting on and negotiating the challenges of boundaries legalities and defensive practice Creative Ethical Practice for Counselling Psychotherapy considers the necessary structures and processes that must inform creative humanistic practice for it to be a safe ethical therapeutic framework Packed with reflective exercises summaries case examples and step by step guidance this book takes the reader from establishing the therapeutic relationship to worst case scenarios like complaints procedures and legal action It is essential reading for legal ethical modules on all counselling courses Patti Owens Michael Wilson and Bee Springwood are all humanistic and integrative therapists and members of the UK Association of Humanistic Psychology Practitioners UKAHPP as well as the United Kingdom Council for Psychotherapy UKCP The Mirror Crack'd Anne Kearns, 2018-04-24 Revised edition This title is as a wake up call to take seriously the climate in which mental health professionals practice in which complaints and civil actions against psychotherapists and counsellors are on the increase and to sharpen assessment skills accordingly It is also designed to help professionals to think about the therapeutic frame and what can happen to both the practitioner and the client when it is broken and finally to give voice to some colleagues who have been involved in the area of complaints in the hope that you and the organisations under whose codes of ethics you practice will take more of an interest in making those codes and frameworks more relevant to the intricacies of the therapeutic relationship The message is simple injuries that happen in relationships need to be addressed in relationships Introduction to Countertransference in Therapeutic Practice Paola Valerio, 2017-11-08 While transference has been fully described in the literature countertransference has been viewed as its ugly sibling and hence there are still not as many reflective accounts or guidance for trainees about how to handle difficult emotions such as shame and envy and conflict in the consulting room As a counterpoint this book provides an integrative guide for therapists on the concept of countertransference and takes a critical stance on the phenomenon and theorising about the so called countertransference viewing it as a framework to explore the transformative potential in managing strong emotions and difficult transactions With an explicit focus on teaching this book informs therapeutic practice by mixing theories and case studies from the authors own clinical and teaching experiences which involves the reader in case studies reflection and action points Countertransference is explored in a wide range of clinical settings including in reflective practice and in research in the field of therapy as well as in art therapy and in the school setting It also considers countertransference in dream interpretation in the supervision and teaching environment and in work with groups and organisations Introduction to Countertransference in Therapeutic Practice offers psychotherapists and counsellors both practicing and in training a comprehensive overview of this important concept from its roots in Freud s work to its place today in a global transcultural society EMDR Supervision Robin Logie,2023-07-26 This unique handbook provides a guide for supervisors of therapists who use Eye Movement Desensitisation and Reprocessing EMDR therapy and those undergoing training in EMDR supervision Whilst drawing on the literature on supervision theory and research this book provides a down to earth guide to this topic focusing on the European system of accreditation The book guides the EMDR supervisor and supervisor in training in the difficult task of balancing the roles of educator enabler and evaluator Using the author s unique blend of warmth humour and humility the book includes vignettes of real life situations encountered by the author and provides practical solutions to dilemmas encountered in EMDR supervision Supervisão em Gestalt-Terapia Virginia Elizabeth Suassuna Martins Costa/Danilo Suassuna,2021-11-24 Neste segundo volume temos a oportunidade de deparar com a riqueza dos autores em suas experiências como supervisores traduzidas em cada frase desta obra Os temas são abordados profundamente convidando o leitor a vivenciar esse espaço no qual se sentirão provocados a refletir sobre a prática clínica da supervisão e sua conexão com os suportes filosóficos e teóricos da abordagem gestáltica The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006 Seven Deadly Sins Alicia Bailey,Jane Q.
