States Jeannie Gayle Pool,H. Stephen Wright,2011 Unlike traditional music film music sources are often difficult to locate and do not follow the patterns that researchers are trained to identify Although there have been several self described introductions to the field and articles that summarize the problems and state of research there is no resource that gathers together all of the basic information that is vital to film music research In this volume Jeannie Gayle Pool and H Stephen Wright address the difficulties scholars encounter when conducting research on film and television music Intended as a guide for scholars and researchers in navigating the complex world of film and television music this book provides a detailed taxonomy of film music primary sources and explains how to find and interpret them The authors tackle the problems of determining film score authorship and working with recordings of film music A bibliographic essay summarizes the major works and trends in film music research and provides clear pointers to the most important resources in the field An up to date guide to important collections of film music sources and other research materials is also included Designed to clarify the nature of film music source materials and how they are generated A Research Guide to Film and Television Music in the United States provides clear signposts for scholars and identifies opportunities for further research

The Worst We Can

Find Dale Sherman,2023-06-15 Had you tuned in to the small television station KTMA on Thanksgiving Day 1988 you would have been one of the few witnesses to pop culture history being made On that day viewers in and around St Paul Minnesota were treated to a genuine oddity in which a man and his robots trapped within a defiantly DIY sci fi set cracked jokes while watching a terrible movie It was a cockeyed twist on the local TV programs of the past in which a host would introduce old cheaply licensed films And though its origins may have been inauspicious Mystery Science Theater 3000 captured the spirit of what had been a beloved pastime for generations of wags wiseacres and smartalecks and would soon go on to inspire countless more The Worst We Can Find is a comprehensive history of and guide to MST3K and its various offshoots including Rifftrax Cinematic Titanic and The Mads Are Back whose lean crew of writers performers and puppeteers have now been making fun of movies for over thirty years It investigates how riffing of films evolved recounts the history of these programs and considers how a practice guaranteed to annoy real life fellow moviegoers grew into such a beloved long lasting franchise As author Dale Sherman explains creative heckling has been around forever but MST3K and its progeny managed to redirect that art into a style that was both affectionate and cutting winning the devotion of countless fans and aspiring rifiers
