Luke 10-24 Barbara E. Reid, Shelly Matthews, 2021-05-28 Because there are more women in the Gospel of Luke than in any other gospel feminists have given it much attention In this commentary Shelly Matthews and Barbara Reid show that feminist analysis demands much more than counting the number of female characters Feminist biblical interpretation examines how the female characters function in the narrative and also scrutinizes the workings of power with respect to empire to anti Judaism and to other forms of othering Matthews and Reid draw attention to the ambiguities of the text both the liberative possibilities and the ways that

Luke upholds the patriarchal status quo and guide readers to empowering reading strategies My Life Among the Deathworks Philip Rieff, 2006 Rieff articulates a comprehensive typological theory of Western culture Using visual illustrations he contrasts the changing modes of spiritual and social thought that have struggled for dominance throughout Western history Wisdom Commentary: Luke 10-24 Barbara E. Reid, OP, Shelly Matthews, 2021-04-15 Because there are more women in the Gospel of Luke than in any other gospel feminists have given it much attention In this commentary Shelly Matthews and Barbara Reid show that feminist analysis demands much more than counting the number of female characters Feminist biblical interpretation examines how the female characters function in the narrative and also scrutinizes the workings of power with respect to empire to anti Judaism and to other forms of othering Matthews and Reid draw attention to the ambiguities of the text both the liberative possibilities and the ways that Luke upholds the patriarchal status quo and guide readers to empowering reading strategies Seven Last Words Timothy Radcliffe, 2005-03-04 The Seven Words from the Cross are the focus of Christian meditation through the ages Set to music by Haydn they epitomise the depth of Jesus's human experience and thus speak most profoundly to the human condition Each meditation is illustrated with a picture of Christ on the Cross Many are old masters some more modern The object is to lead the reader deeply into prayer and contemplation But there is nothing fusty about Radcliffe's text Whatever he writes is a breath of fresh air and these meditations are modern and contemporary in their reference There are also many autobiographical touches which make these meditations more personal This is perfect Lent reading by a spiritual master and one of the few Christian prophets in our time Luke 10-24 Barbara E. Reid, OP, Shelly Matthews, 2022-11-15 Because there are more women in the Gospel of Luke than in any other gospel feminists have given it much attention In this commentary Shelly Matthews and Barbara Reid show that feminist analysis demands much more than counting the number of female characters Feminist biblical interpretation examines how the female characters function in the narrative and also scrutinizes the workings of power with respect to empire to anti Judaism and to other forms of othering Matthews and Reid draw attention to the ambiguities of the text both the liberative possibilities and the ways that Luke upholds the patriarchal status quo and guide readers to empowering reading strategies Executed Women of 20th and 21st Centuries L. Kay Gillespie, 2009-06-15 Executed Women of the 20th and 21st Centuries provides a look into the lives crimes and executions of women during the 20th and 21st centuries Rather than dealing with these women as numbers and statistics this book presents them as human beings Each of these women had lives histories and families The purpose is not to condone their actions but to suggest that those we executed are in fact humans rather than monsters as they are often portrayed Translating "Clergie" Claire M. Waters, 2016 In Translating Clergie Claire M Waters explores medieval texts in French verse and prose from England and the Continent that perform and represent the process of teaching as a shared lay and clerical endeavor Sense and Spirituality James McCullough, 2015-06-02 There is growing interest in the relationship between the arts and Christian faith

Much has been written about the arts and theology and the place of the arts in church life. Not as much has been written however about how the arts might actually advance spiritual formation in terms of the cumulative effect of religious experience and intentional practices. This book provides a modest step forward in that conversation, a conversation between theological aesthetics and practical theology. Understanding aesthetics as the realm of sense perception and spiritual formation as growing capacities to participate in God's purposes, James McCullough suggests how these dynamics can mutually enhance each other with the arts as an effective catalyst for this relationship. McCullough proposes an analysis of artistic communication and explores exciting examples from music, poetry, and painting which render theoretical proposals in concrete terms. This book will engage both those new to the arts and those already deeply familiar with them.

The Twentieth Century's Quest for Closure Sandra G. Giacomazzi, 2000

The Falling of Dusk Paul Anthony Dominiak, 2022-12-08 Paul Dominiak's Lent book examines doubt as an essential component of faith and true belief. For generations, Christian communities have meditated upon the seven last words of Jesus on the cross. Gathered from across the Gospel accounts of the crucifixion, these sayings still speak to us today. In an age of uncertainty and suspicion, Paul Dominiak explores how each of the seven last words attends to doubt as the refining fire of faith rather than as its enemy. The Falling of Dusk puts into critical conversation some of the great doubters of religion with the breadth of the Christian tradition and contemporary theological voices. Each chapter considers one last word spoken on the cross, unpacking why Christians should embrace suspicious doubt and how a suspicious Christianity might challenge doubters. Aimed at those who embrace, reject, or are uncertain about faith, Paul Dominiak invites us to reflect in unconventional ways on our assumptions, anxieties, suspicions, and beliefs through a conventional Lenten form of meditation. Lent is but Easter in disguise.

Alive in God Timothy Radcliffe, 2019-10-03 How can Christianity touch the imagination of our contemporaries when ever fewer people in the West identify as religious Timothy Radcliffe argues we must show how everything we believe is an invitation to live fully God says I put before you life and death choose life Anyone who understands the beauty and messiness of human life novelists poets filmmakers and so on can be our allies whether they believe or not The challenge is not today's secularism but its banality We accompany the disciples as they struggle to understand this strange man who heals casts out demons and offers endless forgiveness In the face of death he teaches them what it means to be alive in God Then he embraces all that afflicts and crushes humanity Finally Radcliffe explores what it means for us to be alive spiritually physically sacramentally justly and prayerfully The result is a compelling new understanding of the words of Jesus I came that they may have life and have it abundantly

Communities of Care Talia Schaffer, 2025-07-08 What we can learn about caregiving and community from the Victorian novel In Communities of Care Talia Schaffer explores Victorian fictional representations of care communities small voluntary groups that coalesce around someone in need Drawing lessons from Victorian sociality Schaffer proposes a theory of communal care and a mode of critical reading centered on an ethics of care In the Victorian era medical science offered little hope for cure of illness or disability and chronic invalidism and lengthy convalescences were common Small communities might gather around afflicted individuals to minister to their needs and palliate their suffering Communities of Care examines these groups in the novels of Jane Austen Charlotte Brontë Charles Dickens George Eliot Henry James and Charlotte Yonge and studies the relationships that they exemplify How do carers become part of the community How do they negotiate status How do caring emotions develop And what does it mean to think of care as an activity rather than a feeling Contrasting the Victorian emphasis on community and social structure with modern individualism and interiority Schaffer's sympathetic readings draw us closer to the worldview from which these novels emerged Schaffer also considers the ways in which these models of carework could inform and improve practice in criticism in teaching and in our daily lives Through the lens of care Schaffer discovers a vital form of communal relationship in the Victorian novel Communities of Care also demonstrates that literary criticism done well is the best care that scholars can give to texts The Limits of a Text Joshua Marshall Strahan, 2012-10-15 How does one limit a biblical text Can one limit it Should one These questions drive one to examine core assumptions of biblical interpretation assumptions about the aims and attitudes one brings to the task of reading the Bible Is the aim of biblical exegesis to uncover what really happened to discover the author's intentions to attend to the interpretations of readers ancient and or contemporary Furthermore should the interpreter approach biblical texts from a position of neutrality suspicion and or faith Strahan's book aims to offer a not the set of answers to these questions by bringing historiographical theory hermeneutical theory and theology into conversation a conversation centered around a case study that deals with limiting the meanings of an enigmatic Gospel text Father forgive them for they know not what they do Luke 23:34a Borrowing insight from Augustine's De Doctrina Christiana this book offers a renewed ecclesially located strategy for dealing with polysemy in biblical texts a strategy that holds together many of the strengths offered by contemporary theological interpreters
