

SEVEN POEMS

For Antonia

1

At the edge
of the body's night
ten moons are rising.

2

A scar remembers the wound.
The wound remembers the pain.
Once more you are crying.

3

When we walk in the sun
our shadows are like barges of silence.

4

My body lies down
and I hear my own
voice lying next to me.

5

The rock is pleasure
and it opens
and we enter it
as we enter ourselves
each night.

Seven Poems:

Seven Poems George Barker,1977      The Eclogues and Cynegetica of Nemesianus H.J. Williams,2018-07-17
Although editions of Nemesianus have been surprisingly numerous very few have contributed appreciably to our understanding of this author and most texts have been based on a very limited number of manuscripts There has been no commentary of any length since that of Burman 1731 and there has never before been one in English covering the whole corpus This book is an attempt to remedy those deficiencies The text is the first to have been based on an examination of all the known manuscripts and a detailed and accurate apparatus criticus is provided The textual history of both poems is thoroughly discussed The question of the authenticity of the Eclogues is examined and Nemesianus authorship is held to be proved The commentary is mainly concerned with textual and grammatical matters There is also a bibliography      Seven Poems Larry Fagin,1976      7-7-7 Poems of Fortune Jennifer Bosveld,2007      Seven Poems Resi Nachman,1971-01-01

And many a lesser bell sound through the room For it is now midnight And two long glasses brimmed with muscatel Bubble upon the table A ghost may come For it is a ghost s right His element is so fine Being sharpened by his death To drink from the wine breath While our gross palates drink from the whole wine I need some mind that if the cannon sound From every quarter of the world can stay Wound in mind s pondering As mummies in the mummy cloth are wound Because I have a marvellous thing to say A certain marvellous thing None but the living mock Though nor for sober ear It may be all that hear

Rainer Maria Rilke's The Book of Hours Rainer Maria Rilke, 2008 The Book of hours written in three bursts between 1899 1903 is Rilke s most formative work covering a crucial period in his rapid ascent from fin de siecle epigone to distinctive modern voice The poems are crucial documents of Rilke s development from his tour around Russia with Lou Andreas Salome through his hasty marriage to Clara Westhoff in the artists community of Worpswede to his turn toward the urban modernity of Paris Rilke assumes the persona of an artist monk undertaking the Romantics journey into the self speaking to God as part transcendent deity part needy neighbor Echoes of his juvenile style persist yet by the end of the book the influence of the sculptor Rodin is discernible in the distinctive idiom of urbanity in the terminology of things and in Rilke s turn to the everyday world around him Jacket flap *The Ma'asé-Ester.
