Seven Sisters Among The Women Of South Asia:

Seven Sisters Anees Jung, 1994 Social and economic conditions of women in seven countries of South Asia Sufi Women of South Asia Tahera Aftab, 2022-05-16 In Sufi Women of South Asia Veiled Friends of God the first biographical compendium of hundred and forty one women from the eleventh to the twentieth century Tahera Aftab fills a serious gap in the existing scholarship regarding the historical presence of women in Islam and brings women to the centre of the expanding literature on Sufism The book's translated excerpts from the original Farsi and Urdu sources that were never put together create a much needed English language source base on Sufism and Muslim women The book questions the spurious religious and cultural traditions that patronise gender inequalities in Muslim societies and convincingly proves that these pious women were exemplars of Islamic piety who as true spiritual masters avoided its public display , Global Perspectives on Prostitution and Sex Trafficking Rochelle L. Dalla, Lynda M. Baker, John Defrain, Celia Williamson, 2011-04-01 This book is part of a two volume set that examines prostitution and sex trafficking on a global scale with each chapter devoted to a particular country in one of seven geo cultural areas of the world The 16 chapters in this volume Volume II are devoted to examination of the commercial sex industry CSI in countries within Africa Asia Middle East and Oceania while the 18 chapters comprising Volume I focus exclusively on Europe Latin America and North America This volume also includes a global section which includes chapters that are globally relevant rather than those devoted to a particular country or geographic location The content of each Volume as well as each chapter reflects great diversity diversity in focus writing style and personal position regarding the commercial sex industry Diversity extends to the contributors who are comprised of international scholars service providers and policy advocates representing a variety of fields and disciplines with distinct and varied frames of reference and theoretical underpinnings with regard to the commercial sex industry In addition to addressing aspects of the CSI across the globe as impacted by geography and culture authors have also provided a spectrum of implications of their work implications ranging from continued scholarship and research to legislative maneuvers and policy change to suggestions for collaboration across NGOS fieldworkers clinicians and service providers Together the 34 expertly crafted chapters provide a wealth of knowledge from which to more deeply appreciate and contemplate the global commercial sex industry By uniting contributors from around the world this book aims to build a relatively common knowledge base on global prostitution and sex trafficking Viewed from a unified global perspective it is hoped that this common understanding will lead to a grounded theory and integrated view with applicable suggestions for international efforts aimed at interventio Linguistic Genocide in Education--or Worldwide Diversity and Human Rights? Tove Skutnabb-Kangas, 2013-05-13 In this powerful multidisciplinary book Tove Skutnabb Kangas shows how most indigenous and minority education contributes to linguistic genocide according to United Nations definitions Theory is combined with a wealth of factual encyclopedic information and with many examples and vignettes The examples come from all parts of the world and try to avoid Eurocentrism Oriented toward theory and practice facts and evaluations and reflection and action the book prompts readers to find information about the world and their local contexts to reflect and to act A Web site with additional resource materials to this book can be found at <http://www.ruc.dk/tovesk>

The Sociology of South Asian Women's Health Sara Rizvi Jafree, 2020-08-06 This contributed volume is the first known collection of essays that brings together scholarly review critiques and primary and secondary data to assess how sociocultural factors influence health behavior in South Asian women The essays are authored by working scholars or healthcare practitioners from Bangladesh India and Pakistan In the chapters the contributors acknowledge social economic and environmental factors to recommend improved interventions and health policy for women of the region Studies on South Asian women's health have targeted clinical evidence with less attention on social and environmental factors driving health recovery and health outcomes The South Asian region more than any other part of the world is driven by traditional and cultural forces that are possibly the most significant factors determining a woman's health awareness and her rights to adopt healthy behavior or pursue health recovery Women of the region share a common culture and political history and there are benefits to understanding their problems collectively in order to design joint improvements in health policy for women Salient but neglected socio political areas that influence health behavior and health outcomes in women of the region are covered in the chapters including Oral Narrations of Social Rejection Suffered by South Asian Women with Irreversible Health Conditions Women's Role in Decision Making for Health Care in South Asia Poverty Health Coverage and Credit Opportunities for South Asian Women Refugee Displaced and Climate Affected Women of South Asia and Their Health Challenges The Political Sociology of South Asian Women's Health The Sociology of South Asian Women's Health is a useful resource for students researchers and academicians especially those interested in public health gender social policy and occupational management as well as healthcare practitioners administrators health and public policy makers government officers and scholars of South Asian studies

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike South Asian Diaspora in North America Pramod Kumar Mishra,Urmila Mohapatra,2002

The Call of Bilal Edward E. Curtis IV, 2014-10-15 How do people in the African diaspora practice Islam While the term Black Muslim may conjure images of Malcolm X and Muhammad Ali millions of African descended Muslims around the globe have no connection to the American based Nation of Islam The Call of Bilal is a penetrating account of the rich diversity of Islamic religious practice among African Muslims worldwide Covering North Africa and the Middle East India and Pakistan Europe and the Americas Edward E Curtis IV reveals a fascinating range of religious activities from the observance of the five pillars of Islam and the creation of transnational Sufi networks to the veneration of African saints and political struggles for racial justice Weaving together ethnographic fieldwork and historical perspectives Curtis shows how African Muslims interpret not only their religious identities but also their attachments to the African diaspora For some the dispersal of African people across time and space has been understood as a mere physical scattering or perhaps an economic opportunity For others it has been a metaphysical and spiritual exile of the soul from its sacred land and eternal home
