The Seventh Horse, and Other Tales Leonora Carrington, 1988 The Seventh Horse, and Other Tales Leonora Carrington, 1988 Short Story Index , 1989

The Obits: New York Times Annual 2012 William McDonald, 2011-11-11 The obits It s the first section many of us turn to when we open the paper not to see who died but rather to find out about who lived to discover the interesting lives of people who ve made a mark A new annual that collects nearly 300 of the best of The New York Times obituaries from the previous year The Obits Annual 2012 is a compelling addictive as salted peanuts who s who of some of the most fascinating people of the twentieth century Written by top journalists each entry is a jewel a miniature nuanced biography filled with the facts we love to read with the surprise and serendipity of life There s David L Wolper the producer of Roots and the story of how he got his start purchasing film footage from Sputnik The jazz singer Abbey Lincoln and her change from glamorous performer she owned a dress of Marilyn Monroe s to civil rights activist she burned the Monroe dress Owsley Stanley the quirky perfecter of LSD who blamed a heart attack on the fact that his mother made him eat broccoli as a child Patricia Neal known by most as a movie star but her real life filled with tragedy adversity and incredible professional ups and downs is almost a surreal play of triumph and tragedy Arranged chronologically like the obits themselves it s a deliciously random walk through the recent past meeting the philosophers newsmen spies publishers moguls soul singers baseball managers Nobel Prize winners models and others who ve shaped the world Alchemy, Jung, and Remedios Varo Dennis

Pottenger, 2021-05-03 Alchemy Jung and Remedios Varo offers a depth psychological analysis of the art and life of Remedios Varo a Spanish surrealist painter The book uses Varo s paintings in a revolutionary way to critique the patriarchal underpinnings of Jungian psychology alchemy and Surrealism illuminating how Varo used painting to address cultural complexes that silence female expression The book focuses on how the practice of alchemical psychology through the power of imagination and the archetypal Feminine can lead to healing and transformation for individuals and culture Alchemy Jung and Remedios Varo offers the first in depth psychological treatment of the role alchemy played in the friendship between Varo and Leonora Carrington a connection that led to paintings that protest the pitfalls of patriarchy This unique book will be of great interest for academics scholars and post graduate students in the fields of analytical psychology art history Surrealism cultural criticism and Jungian studies

Subversive Intent Susan Rubin Suleiman, 1990 With this important new book Susan Suleiman lays the foundation for a postmodern feminist poetics and theory of the avant garde She shows how the figure of Woman as fantasy myth or metaphor has functioned in the work of male avant garde writers and artists of this century Focusing also on women s avant garde artistic practices Suleiman demonstrates how to read difficult modern works in a way that reveals their political as well as their aesthetic impact Suleiman directly addresses the subversive intent of avant garde movements from Surrealism to postmodernism Through her detailed readings of provocatively transgressive works by Andr Breton Georges Bataille Roland Barthes Alain Robbe Grillet Marcel Duchamp Max Ernst and others Suleiman demonstrates the central role of the female body in the male erotic imagination and illuminates the extent to which masculinist assumptions have influenced modern art and theory By examining the work of contemporary women avantgarde artists and theorists including H l ne Cixous Marguerite Duras Monique Wittig Luce Irigaray Angela Carter Jeanette Winterson Leonora Carrington Barbara Kruger Jenny Holzer and Cindy Sherman Suleiman shows the political power of feminist critiques of patriarchal ideology and especially emphasizes the power of feminist humor and parody Central to Suleiman s revisionary theory of the avant garde is the figure of the playful laughing mother True to the radically irreverent spirit of the historical avant gardes and their postmodernist successors Suleiman s laughing mother embodies the need for a link between symbolic innovation and political and social change

Soft Living Architecture Rachel Armstrong, 2018-09-06

Soft Living Architecture explores the invention of new architectures based on living processes It crafts a unique intersection between two fast developing disciplines biomimicry and biodesign in architecture and bioinformatics and natural computing in the natural sciences This is the first book to examine both the theory and methodology of architecture and design working directly with the natural world It explores a range of approaches from the use of life like systems in building design to the employment of actual growing and living cell and tissue cultures as architectural materials creating architecture that can change learn and grow with us The use of living architecture is cutting edge and speculative yet it is also inspiring a growing number of designers worldwide to adopt alternative perspectives on sustainability and environmental design The book examines the ethical and theoretical issues arising alongside case studies of experimental practice to explore what we mean by natural in the Anthropocene and raise deep questions about the nature of design and the design of nature This provocative and at times controversial book shows why it will become ever more necessary to embrace living processes in architecture if we are to thrive in a sustainable future

Utopia David Ayers, Benedikt Hjärtarson, Tomi Huttunen, Harri Veivo, 2015-12-14

Utopian hope and dystopian despair are characteristic features of modernism and the avant garde Readings of the avant garde have frequently sought to identify utopian moments coded in its works and activities as optimistic signs of a possible future social life or as the attempt to preserve hope against the closure of an emergent dystopian present The fourth volume of the EAM series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies casts light on the history theory and actuality of the utopian and dystopian strands which run through European modernism and the avant garde from the late 19th to the 21st century The book s varied and carefully selected contributions written by experts from around 20 countries seek to answer such questions as how have modernism and the avant garde responded to historical circumstance in mapping the form of possible futures for humanity how have avant garde and modernist works presented ideals of living as alternatives to the present how have avant gardists acted with or against the state to remodel human life or to resist the instrumental reduction of life by administration and industrialisation

Magnifying Mirrors Renäe Riese Hubert,1994-01-01 Mit Bez gen zu Meret Oppenheim

History of the Gothic: Twentieth-Century Gothic Lucie Armitt,2011-01-15 Why at a time when the majority of us no longer believe in ghosts demons or the occult does Gothic continue to have such a strong grasp upon literature cinema and popular culture This book answers this question through exploring some of the ways in which we have applied Gothic tropes to our everyday fears The book opens with The Turn of the Screw a text dealing in the dangers adults pose to children while simultaneously questioning the assumed innocence of all children As our culture becomes increasingly anxious about child safety the uncanny surfaces in the popular imagination in the form of the paedophile or the child murderer At the same time the Gothic has always brought danger home and another key focus of the book lies in the various manifestations undertaken by the haunted house during the twentieth century from the bombed out spaces of the blitz The Demon Lover and The Night Watch to the designer bathrooms of wealthy American suburbia What Lies Beneath Gothic monsters can also be terror monsters and after a discussion of terrorism and atrocity in relation to burial alive the book examines the relationship between the human and the inhuman through the role of the beast monster as manifestation of the evil that resides in our midst The Hound of the Baskervilles and The Birds It is with the dangers of the body that the Gothic has been most closely associated and during the later twentieth century paranoia attaches itself to skeletal forms and ghosts in the wake of the HIV AIDs crisis Sexuality and as disease is one of the themes of Patrick McGrath's work Dr Haggard's Disease and The Angel and the issue of skeletons in the closet is also explored through Henry James's The Jolly Corner However sexuality is also one of the most liberating aspects of Gothic narratives After a brief discussion of camp humour in the British television drama series Jekyll the book concludes with a discussion of the apparitional lesbian through the work of Sarah Waters

Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05

Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Collège de Sociologie 1937-39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non-French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism's mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens The Collège de Sociologie and Georges Bataille's theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist-influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier, Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions The Collège and Bataille's dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille's theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Collège's thoughts on the sacred it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre
