African Hosts & Their Guests W. E. A. van Beek, Annette M. Schmidt, 2012 Africa is a theme park for Western tourists to experience untouched wilderness untamed nature and truly authentic cultures where the hosts too are part of a discourse about the other and ourselves about wildness danger and roots Tourism is important for Africa international tourist arrivals to Africa continue to grow income from tourism is crucial to national economies and tourism investments are considered among the most profitable This edited volume deals with the interaction of local communities with tourists coming into their areas and villages Based upon a common theoretical approach fourteen cases of African tourism are discussed which involve direct contact between hosts and guests The viewpoint throughout is from the side of the locals establishing how the processes of interaction shape each small scale destination Crucial in Africa is the fact that the large majority of tourism is game oriented and the interaction between locals and visitors is very much tainted by this fact Central is the notion of the tourist bubble the infrastructure that is generated locally and internationally for hosting tourists as it is this institutional interface that tends to impact on the local society and culture not the tourists themselves directly The examples come from all over Africa from the Sahara to the Eastern Cape and from Kenya to Ghana All contributions are based upon original fieldwork Walter van Beek is professor of anthropology at Tilburg University and Senior Researcher at the African Studies Centre Leiden Annette Schmidt is curator of the African department at the National Museum of Ethnology in Leiden and is an archaeologist with a long experience in cultural management projects

Research Themes for

Tourism Peter Robinson, Sine Heitmann, Peter U. C. Dieke, 2011 This book introduces a broad range of themes within tourism research As such it seeks to provide some explanation and contextualization of each topic supported by applied case studies where appropriate international examples and detailed discourse around some of the current contemporary debates in tourism management The book consists of 20 major chapters on the different types of tourism Male Homosexuality in 21st-Century Thailand Jan W. de Lind van Wijngaarden,2021-02-15 This book explores the experiences meanings and identities of young same sex attracted men in rural Thailand It is based on a study of 25 young rural Thai men who were each interviewed three times within a two year period while they were aged 18 20 uncovering significant fluidity variety and change Sex and the Sexual during People's Leisure and Tourism Experiences Neil Carr,Yaniv Poria,2010-05-11 Sex and the sexual have for far too long been consigned to the dark corners by social scientists in general and tourism and leisure scholars in particular Sex and the Sexual During People s Leisure and Tourism Experiences seeks to begin to rectify this situation by bringing the position and nature of sex and the sexual into the light of academic debate As such this book is designed to highlight cross disciplinary emerging work on sex and the sexual in leisure and tourism and provide the readers with insights into this social realm It encompasses a broad array of sex related issues and tourism and leisure environments from across a variety of countries The book should appeal to researchers and students across the humanities and social sciences both for the value of the research in its own right and the ability of it to be used as a lens through which to view the position of sex and the sexual as well as tourism and leisure in today s world Overall it is argued that sex and the sexual should play a part in the academic discourse especially if we wish to describe what is actually happening out there as far as tourism and leisure are concerned Sex Tourism on the Kenyan Coast Rose Omondi,Chris Ryan,2024-08-28 This book challenges many suppositions surrounding sex tourism suggesting that elderly males who seek romance and are caught up in their fantasies of finding love with exotic black women are taken advantage of even while the women are often deluding themselves when searching for the mzungu who will enable them to fulfil their dreams of travel house ownership and comfort It is a complex story based on research into the lives of the sex workers obtained from a study conducted over 12 months in the bars and nightclubs of the Kenyan coast Fortunes are made and lost but the tragedy is that the success of the few in achieving their dreams becomes a false promise for the majority who seek to emulate the success of the few The book will be of immense value to those interested in gender studies and indeed those who hold an interest in the complexities of sex work
