Medical and Health Care Books and Serials in Print, 1986 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1968 Social Policy Review Nick Manning, 1991 COVID-19 and Social Change in Spain Carlos de Castro, Andrés Pedreño, Marta Latorre, 2022-11-18 Originating in the popular Sociolog a en Cuarentena blog this volume provides a detailed and multifaceted analysis of the social impact of the COVID 19 pandemic in Spain This book originates in the great upheaval caused by the COVID 19 pandemic when the unprecedented announcement of global lockdowns paralysed the world and put social relations on hold In response a loose collective of sociologists historians and philosophers from various Spanish universities began to share their reflections on the pandemic on the Sociolog a en Cuarentena blog This book takes some of those thoughts and delves deeper into the recurring themes as they relate to the Spanish experience of the pandemic The chapters in the first part of the book address the social and political context of the various measures put in place by the government to deal with the health economic and social effects of the pandemic Subsequently several chapters examine how the pandemic led to important reflections on uncertainty and authority in processes of scientific knowledge production Other chapters analyse the effects of the pandemic on demographics the organisation of care the education system the organisation of work and the recognition of essential workers immigration policies and the digitalisation of society Collectively the contributions call into question the narrative of exceptionalism that views the pandemic as a singular event that is uniquely responsible for the present situation of uncertainty and instability They also draw attention to the fragility of social prestige and trust in neglected and weakened public institutions as well as identifying a growing socio political polarisation that may be highly significant in the future This collection will appeal to students and researchers with an interest in contemporary Spain and the socio political effects of the COVID 19 pandemic
