Sex And Subterfuge Women Novelists To 1850:

Sex and Subterfuge Eva Figes, 1982 Sex and Subterfuge Eva Figes, 1982 British Women Writers, 1700-1850 Barbara Joan Horwitz, 1997 A guide to British women authors their works and the writing about them Sexual Politics and the Romantic Author Sonia Hofkosh, 1998-06-18 Exploring a range of early nineteenth century cultural materials from canonical poetry and critical prose to women's magazines and gift book engravings Sexual Politics and the Romantic Author offers new perspectives on the role of gender in Romanticism's defining paradigms of authorship The Romantic author's claim to individual agency is complicated by its articulation in a market system perceived to be impelled in large part by fantasies of female desire by what women read and write what they buy and sell how they look and where they look for pleasure These studies in the contested public spaces of literary labour elaborate the fundamental if invisible function of the woman as embodiment of authorial ambivalence in writing by Austen Byron Coleridge William Hazlitt Sarah Hazlitt Leigh Hunt Keats Mary Shelley William Wordsworth and others Frances Burney, Dramatist Barbara Darby, 2021-12-14 The position Frances Burney 1752 1840 holds as a novelist journalist and letterwriter is now undisputed thanks to reevaluations of the canon in recent years Yet Burney was always intrigued by and wrote for the stage Though only one of Burney's dramas was performed in her lifetime Barbara Darby places the plays in the context of performance and feminist theory challenging past assertions about Burney that were based entirely on her novels and journals Darby maintains that in exposing the failure of such practices and institutions as courtship marriage family government and the church Burney's dramas often exceed her novels in the depth of their social commentary In her four comedies and four tragedies Burney uses stage space dialogue blocking and gesture to highlight the ways power is distributed among society s members According to Darby these plays show that the eighteenth century female experience was dominated by physical psychic and emotional regulation that included bodily punishment and the limitation of personal choice Placing Burney alongside other prominent female playwrights of the period Darby brings to light a substantial body of work revealing that Burney s drama was not a casual sideline to her novel writing Frances Burney Dramatist expands our appreciation of the extent to which eighteenth century women playwrights used the stage as a forum Rousseau and the Politics of Ambiguity Mira Morgenstern, 2010-11-01

Malady and Mortality Helen Thomas, 2016-06-22 This ground breaking study examines visual and literary responses to and representations of illness dying and death from the perspective of the chronically ill their families and carers medics artists photographers authors and academics It encourages a re examination of cultural taboos and visual and literary practices that engage with illness and death Focusing upon a wide range of creative and critical engagements this book makes a significant contribution to the medical humanities via its exploration of medical practice literature and film digital media studies graphic design and both contemporary and historical attitudes towards illness death including infant mortality mourning and bereavement For some the experience of illness provokes feelings of exile crisis or social critique whilst for others it instigates utopian discourses predicated upon personal reflection communication or connectivity wherein the self is redefined beyond the parameters and constraints of the body The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women s writing The Brontës and Religion Marianne Thormählen, 1999-11-04 This is the first full length study of religion in the fiction of the Bront's Drawing on extensive knowledge of the Anglican church in the nineteenth century Marianne Thorm hlen shows how the Bront s familiarity with the contemporary debates on doctrinal ethical and ecclesiastical issues informs their novels Divided into four parts the book examines denominations doctrines ethics and clerics in the work of the Bront's The analyses of the novels clarify the constant interplay of human and Divine love in the development of the novels While demonstrating that the Bront's fiction usually reflects the basic tenets of Evangelical Anglicanism the book emphasises the characteristic spiritual freedom and audacity of the Bront's Lucid and vigorously written it will open up new perspectives for Bront specialists and enthusiasts alike on a fundamental aspect of the novels greatly neglected in recent decades Maria Edgeworth's Irish Writing B. Hollingworth, 1997-08-29 Edgeworth is regarded as a pioneer in the development of the regional novel and the use of vernacular language This study investigates her attitudes towards language and regionalism It shows by a detailed discussion of her major Irish texts Castle Rackrent Essay on Irish Bulls Ennui The Absentee and Ormond how her intellectual Lunar background and her life in Ireland during the momentous years of the Union is reflected in the form and language of her writing Norwegian Women's Writing 1850-1990 Janet Garton, 2000-12-01 Volume One in a new series this book covers Norwegian women's writing over the last 150 years setting literary developments against the background of the emergence and growth of the women s movement in Norway The work is divided chronologically into three sections the period up to 1913 when the universal suffrage was granted the period from 1913 to 1960 a time of stagnation in the women s movement with little involvement in contemporary political social and economic debates and the period from 1960 to the present day which has seen an increasing participation of women in public life Chapters on individual authors concentrate on the images of the women portrayed and investigate the conflicts behind the text the tensions between the authors and their work and the ambivalent feelings of women authors towards the act of writing The book should be of interest to all those
