sweeping epic history of the Renaissance artists seen through the lens of something that perhaps occupied their thoughts and influenced their art the most sex Taking Donatello's provocative reinvention of the nude as his starting point Jonathan shows how the story of the Renaissance is the story of a sexual revolution The great artists of the 15th and 16th century were not just visionaries but lovers Jonathan argues that the famous nudes of Michelangelo and Titian are not abstract images of ideal beauty but erotic expressions of love and desire and that in order to understand the Renaissance we have to understand the sex lives of the men and women who defined it men like Raphael who obsessively painted his lover La Fornarina in the nude Michelangelo who made beautiful drawings of naked male bodies to present to the young man he adored and Rembrandt whose bedroom portraits of Hendrickje Stoffels are the frankest expressions of love anywhere in art Sweeping from its origins in Florence in the mid 15th century to its culmination in the work of Rubens and Rembrandt in the 17th The Loves of the Artists shows that the Renaissance invented eroticism as we know it and that the new ways of thinking about sex it engendered are crucial to understanding not only art but European culture as a whole

The Mother of All Arts Gene Logsdon, 2007-07-20 When Gene Logsdon realized that he experienced the same creative joy from farming as he did from writing he suspected that agriculture itself was a form of art Thus began his search for the origins of the artistic impulse in the agrarian lifestyle The Mother of All Arts is the culmination of Logsdon's journey his account of friendships with farmers and artists driven by the urge to create He chronicles his long relationship with Wendell Berry and discovers the playful humor of several new agrarian writers He reveals insights gleaned from conversations with Andrew Wyeth and his family of artists Through his association with musicians such as Willie Nelson and his involvement with Farm Aid Logsdon learns how music blues jazz country and even rock n roll is also rooted in agriculture Logsdon sheds new light on the work of rural painters writers and musicians and suggests that their art could be created only by those who work intimately with the land Unlike the gritty realism or abstract expressionism often favored by contemporary critics agrarian art evokes familiar feelings of community and comfort Most important Logsdon convincingly demonstrates that diminishing the connection between art and nature lessens the social and aesthetic value of both The Mother of All Arts explores these cultural connections and traces the development of a new agrarian culture that Logsdon believes will eventually replace the model brought about by the industrial revolution Humorous and introspective the book is neither conventional cultural criticism nor traditional art criticism It is a unique lively meditation on the nature and purpose of art and on the life well lived by one of the truly original voices of rural America
