Long Lankin Gallerys:

Long Lankin John Banville, 2013-07-02 A collection of short stories from the early years of the Man Booker Prize winning author's career that explores the passionate emotions fear jealousy desire that course beneath the surface of everyday life From a couple at risk of being torn apart by the allure of wealth to an old man's descent into nature the tales in this collection showcase the talents that launched Banville onto the literary scene Offering a unique insight into the mind of one of the great living masters of English language prose Los Angeles Times these nine haunting sketches stand alone as canny observations on the turbulence of the human condition

The Supreme Fictions of John Banville Joseph McMinn, 1999 This work offers a critical commentary on the range of John Banville's fiction including the plays and views that fiction in the contexts of contemporary critical theory particularly those of postmodernism and feminism It argues that Banville's work is deeply influenced by romantic and modernist mythologies of the creative imagination especially those expressed by Coleridge and Wallace Stevens Banville's interest in systems of knowledge and forms of representation is a major issue in the study and McMinn investigates his use of paintings as metaphors

Visions of Alterity Elke D'hoker, 2021-11-15 Visions of Alterity Representation in the Works of John Banville offers detailed and original readings of the work of the Irish author John Banville one of the foremost figures in contemporary European literature It investigates one of the fundamental concerns of Banville's novels mediating the gap between subject and object or self and world in representation By drawing on the rich history of the problem of representation in literature philosophy and literary theory this study provides a thorough insight into the rich philosophical and intertextual dimension of Banville's fiction In close textual analyses of Banville's most important novels it maps out a thematic development that moves from an interest in the epistemological and aesthetic representation of the world in scientific theories over a concern with the ethical dimension of representations to an exploration of self representation and identity What remains constant throughout these different perspectives is the disruption of representations by brief but haunting glimpses of otherness In tracing these different visions of alterity in Banville's solipsistic literary world this study offers a better understanding of his insistent and thought provoking exploration of what it means to be human

John Banville Joseph McMinn, 1991 A study of the complete work of John Banville up to and including The Book of Evidence The book emphasises the imaginative strategies and patterns of Banville's fiction which contains many elements of both modernist and post modernist writing and suggests its position in modern literature

John Banville Ingo Berensmeyer, 2000 Books Ireland, 1994 John Banville Rüdiger Imhof, 1997 Newly enlarged to take into account subsequent statements by John Banville and to cover new novels this book is the definitive work that places the author in the vanguard of post war Irish writers

Long Lankin John Banville, 1984 Irish University Review, 2006 A journal of Irish studies

Reading the Future Mike Murphy, 2000 Who are the Irish writers working today who will be read in one hundred years time That was the question that RTE put to a panel of scholars editors and others The result is a list of writers each of whom will have a dialogue with Mike Murphy for a forthcoming television and radio series reading the future
