Adamson, 1997-09-15 Identifying thousands of historical fiction novels biographies history trade books CD ROMs and videotapes this book helps you locate resources on American history for students Each book presents information in two sections In the first part titles are listed according to grade levels within eras and further organized according to product type The books cover American history from North America Before 1600 and The American Colonies 1600 1774 to The Mid Twentieth Century 1946 1975 and Since 1975 The second section has annotated bibliographies that describe each title and includes publication information and awards won The focus is on books published since 1990 and all have received at least one favorable review Some books with more illustration than text will be valuable for enticing slow or reticent readers An index helps users find resources by author title or biographical subject Turning Points—Actual and Alternate Histories Rodney P. Carlisle, J. Geoffrey Golson, 2007-02-14 This work is a creative approach to history that not only recounts what actually happened during the Civil War but also imagines alternate outcomes had key events turned out differently and how they might have changed the course of American history In colorful readable prose this volume provides a full history of the

Civil War including John Brown s raid the story of the Confederate States of America the battles of Bull Run Antietam and Gettysburg Sherman s March to the Sea the Emancipation Proclamation the Thirteenth Amendment Lincoln s assassination Reconstruction and Andrew Johnson s impeachment But more importantly it offers a range of essays on how events could have turned out differently militarily politically and culturally It challenges students and general readers alike to remember that the course of history is not preordained Instead history is made in critical moments of decision by those who choose one course of action over another Their choices and the outcomes of those choices could easily have been different
