Modern World Revision Philip Stanton, 2000 Intended as a resource providing coverage of the Modern World GCSE History syllabus for AQA NEB students this fourth pack concerns the USA 1919 1941 It comprises units of work overviews key issues analysis key issues question and answer model answers and an answer constructor A History of the World from the 20th to the 21st Century John Ashley Soames Grenville, 2005 Provides a comprehensive survey of the key events and personalities of this period The City of London and Social Democracy Aled Davies, 2017-06-15 The City of London and Social Democracy examines the relationship between the financial sector and the state in post war Britain The key argument made in Aled Davies's study is that changes to the financial sector during the 1960s and 1970s undermined the state's capacity to sustain and develop a modern industrial economy Social democratic economic strategy was constrained by the institutionalization of investment in pension and insurance funds the fragmentation of the nation's oligopolistic domestic banking system the emergence of an unregulated international capital market based in London and the breakdown of the Bretton Woods international monetary system Novel attempts to reconfigure social democratic economic strategy in response to these changes ultimately proved unsuccessful Meanwhile the assumption that national prosperity could only be achieved through industrial growth was challenged by a reconceptualization of Britain as a fundamentally financial and commercial nation an idea that was successfully promoted by the City itself These findings assert the need to place the Thatcher governments subsequent neoliberal economic revolution which saw the acceleration of deindustrialization and the triumph of the City of London as a pre eminent international financial centre within a broader material institutional and cultural context previously underappreciated by historians Themes in Modern European History since 1945 Rosemary Wakeman, 2003-06-26 Broad in geographical scope this collection explores the most important transformations and upheavals of post 1945 Europe in the light of recent scholarship A wide array of authors from the UK the USA and across Europe contribute twelve chapters consider key political cultural and economic changes of an era that needs reevaluation and reconsideration from a historical perspective Cross disciplinary covering a wide range of issues politics economics social and cultural aspects Themes in Modern European History since 1945 is structured around recent theoretical debates on the postwar and will find a firm standing on the bookshelves of European history students Subject Guide to Books in Print,2001 Allies and Italians under Occupation I. Williams,2013-07-30 Using original documents the Allied Occupation of southern Italy particularly Sicily and Naples is illustrated by examining crime and unrest by Allied soldiers deserters rogue troops and Italian civilians from drunkenness theft rape and murder to riots demonstrations black marketeering and prostitution A Military History of Africa Timothy J. Stapleton,2013-10-21 A detailed and thorough chronological overview of the history of warfare and military structures in Africa covering ancient times to the present day A Military History of Africa achieves a daunting task it synthesizes decades of specialized academic research and literature including the most recent material to offer an accessible survey of Africa s military history from the earliest times to the present day The first volume examines the precolonial period beginning with warfare in ancient North Africa including ancient Egypt and Carthage and continues through the cavalry based Muslim empires of the trans Sahara trade and the wars of the slave trade in West and East Africa The second volume focuses on the wars of European colonial conquest and African resistance during the late 19th century African participation in both world wars and the early violent struggles for independence from the 1950s and early 1960s The third volume explores warfare in postcolonial Africa including coverage of the impact of the global Cold War conflicts in Southern Africa from the 1960s to 1980s the development of postcolonial African armed forces and civil wars sparked by the discovery of precious resources such as diamonds in Sierra Leone Readers of this three volume work will understand how warfare and military structures have been consistently central to the development of African societies Modern British History Jeremy Black,2000-05-23 Jeremy Black s compelling text provides a thematic account of British history centering on the twentieth century To the traditional chronological account of historic events Black adds long range thematic chapters reflecting the full range of topics These include political structures ideologies wars and international relations economic history social history as well as consumerism media and mass communication The coverage is further enlivened with exhibits providing supplementary background information on key personalities and pivotal events and numerous illustrations Term Paper Resource Guide to Nineteenth-Century U.S. History Kathleen W. Craver,2008-06-30 Major help for those inevitable American History term paper projects has arrived to enrich and stimulate students in challenging and enjoyable ways Students from high school age to undergraduate will be able to get a jumpstart on assignments with the hundreds of term paper projects and research information offered here in an easy to use format Users can quickly choose from the 100 important events of the nineteenth century carefully selected to be appealing to students and delve right in Each event entry begins with a brief summary to pique interest and then offers original and thought provoking term paper ideas in both standard and alternative formats that incorporate the latest in electronic media such as

Books in Print ,1991 Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd,2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like J rgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies

British Volunteers in the Spanish Civil War Richard Baxell,2004-07-31 During the Spanish Civil War of 1936 1939 almost 2 500 men and women left Britain to fight for the Spanish Republic This book examines the role experiences and contribution of the volunteers who fought in the British Battalion of the 15 International Brigades asking Who were these volunteers Where did they come from Why did they go to Spain How much did they actually help the Spanish Republic In contrast to recent revisionist interpretations this work stresses the crucial importance of the war experience itself rather than political ideology in the understanding of the volunteers role and experiences within the Spanish war This book will be of essential interest to historians and those interested in the Spanish Civil War

War and Progress Peter Dewey,2014-09-11 This is an account of how the daily lives of ordinary peoples were changed profoundly and permanently by these three momentous decades 1914 1945 Often depicted in negative terms Peter Dewey finds a much more positive pattern in the wealth of evidence he lays before us His is a story of economic achievement and the emergence of a new sense of social community in the nation rather than a saga of disenchantment and decline

Remembering the Road to World War Two Patrick Finney,2010-09-13 This is comparative history on a grand scale skilfully analysing complex national debates and drawing major conclusions without ever losing the necessary nuances of interpretation Stefan Berger University of Manchester UK Remembering the Road to World War Two is a broad and comparative international survey of the historiography of the origins of the Second World War It explores how in the case of each of the major combatant countries historical writing on the origins of the Second World War has been inextricably entwined with debates over national identity and collective memory Spanning seven case studies the Soviet Union Germany Italy France Great Britain the United States and Japan Patrick Finney proposes a fresh approach to the politics of historiography This provocative volume discusses the political cultural disciplinary and archival factors which have contributed to the evolving construction of historical interpretations It analyses the complex and multi faceted relationships between texts about the origins of the war the negotiation of conceptions of national identity and unfolding processes of war remembrance Offering an innovative perspective on international history and enriching the literature on collective memory this book will prove fascinating reading for all students of the Second World War Britain 1905-1951 Philip Stanton, 2000 Pupils will benefit from active revision and reinforcement of acquired skills and knowledge rather than the traditional crammer style of revision resources which simply offer re reading of material Teachers can be assured that the material covered is directly relevant for their topics as the revision units are closely based on key issues as outlined in the syllabus Teachers can use the resource by either copying for each pupil or by selecting and adapting material into their own revision plans Less able pupils will benefit from the provision of part completed answers model answers and help in developing History skills Written by experienced teachers who can communicate important issues within each topic effectively
