Contemporary Jewish Reality in Germany and Its Reflection in Film Claudia Simone Dorchain,Felice Naomi Wonnenberg,2012-12-06 The notion of self and other and its representation in artwork and literature is an important theme in current cultural sciences as well as in our everyday life in contemporary Western societies Moreover the concept of self and other and its imaginary dichotomy is gaining more and more political impact in a world of resurfacing ideology ridden conflicts The essays deal with Jewish reality in contemporary Germany and its reflection in movies from the special point of view of cultural sciences political sciences and religious studies This anthology presents challengingly new insights into topics rarely covered such as youth culture or humor and finally discusses the images of Jewish life as realities still to be constructed

Medieval Architecture Nicola Coldstream, 2002 Medieval architecture comprises much more than the traditional image of Gothic cathedrals and the castles of chivalry A great variety of buildings synagogues halls and barns testify to the diverse communities and interests in western Europe in the centuries between 1150 and 1550 This book looks at their architecture from an entirely fresh perspective shifting the emphasis away from such areas as France towards the creativity of other regions including central Europe and Spain Treating the subject thematically Coldstream seeks out what all buildings both religious and secular have in common and how they reflect the material and spiritual concerns of the people who built and used them Furthermore the author considers how and why after four centuries of shaping the landscapes and urban patterns of Europe medieval styles were superseded by classicism
