Williams,Michael Saladyga,2011-05-26 Founded in 1911 the AAVSO boasts over 1200 members and observers and is the world s largest non profit organization dedicated to variable star observation This timely book marks the AAVSO s centennial year presenting an authoritative and accurate history of this important association Writing in an engaging and accessible style the authors move chronologically through five eras of the AAVSO discussing the evolution of its structure and purpose Throughout the text the main focus is on the thousands of individuals whose contributions have made the AAVSO s progress possible Describing a century of interaction between amateur and professional astronomers the authors celebrate the collaborative relationships that have existed over the years As the definitive history of the first hundred years of the AAVSO this text has broad appeal and will be of interest to amateur and professional astronomers as well as historians and sociologists of science in general Sex and Sexuality in a Feminist

World Katherine A. Hermes,Karen A. Ritzenhoff,2009-01-14 Sex and sexuality are topics that have defined feminism since its inception What has changed is that there is now a generation of feminists and scholars who are comfortable not only to write in their own disciplines but who incorporate feminist ideas in their research This book assembles a variety of essays most of which were written especially for this collection that negotiate sex and sexuality in historical contexts as well as in contemporary times There is a common ground of history and popular culture among the articles While different theories of feminism operate in these essays feminist lenses have allowed the reevaluation of familiar topics from early religious practices to medieval literature to current films and advertising The authors represented in this collection range from established feminist and gender scholars to those who employ feminist theoretical frameworks in their respective disciplines
