Looking At Lives:

Looking at Life: As a family ,1987      Looking at Life through a Biblical Lens Robert C. Tannehill,2021-07-01 It may seem that so many sermons have been preached on biblical texts that there is nothing new to say Careful reading and imaginative thought however can result in new insights especially if the biblical text becomes a lens through which we freshly view issues of human life Larger literary units should be considered rather than isolated Bible verses and there is often a development in the text that is suggestive for development of the sermon Clear thinking is necessary about real issues for people today Discernment of the link between the ancient text and the challenges we face requires both thought and imagination The result should be new suggestions for ways of expressing the gospel message appropriate for our time These sermons are presented as good examples of biblical preaching They illustrate the qualities noted above They can also be used in daily or weekly devotions They are more challenging than much devotional material but that may add to their value in nourishing a thoughtful life of faith      Looking At Gay & Lesbian Life Diane Raymond,1993-06-30 Discusses gender roles human sexuality prejudice discrimination lesbian and gay politics AIDS gay culture and the homosexual in literature

Looking for Life John G. Lewis,2005-04-30 Through exegetical studies of 1 Corinthians and Galatians John Lewis shows how Paul synthesises theology and ethics which interpreters frequently separate as integrated aspects of Christian thinking and living This fusion becomes evident in Paul s complex process of theological moral reasoning that lies beneath the surface of his letters for which we have coined the phrase theo ethical reasoning The book also examines how Paul encourages his churches to apply this theo ethical reasoning in the community practice of spiritual discernment a dialogical comparative process of reasoned reflection on behaviour and experience Through this practice of looking for life community members are led by the Spirit as they reason together attempting to associate the manifestations of new life with conduct that faithfully portrays Christ s self giving pattern This correlation of conduct with experience grounds Paul s own proclamation of Jesus Christ in word and deed It also becomes the foundation for believers faith and hope as they come to know Christ and experience the power of God Thus the book concludes that the practice of spiritual discernment by means of theo ethical reasoning lies at the centre of Paul s religion      Change Your Looks, Change Your Life Dr. Michelle Copeland,2009-10-13
