Abstract: The frequency and quality of intergroup contact within racially and ethnically diverse schools has potentially important implications for the achievement of desegregation goals. The analyses presented here use survey data to assess intergroup contact within a sample of ten interdistrict magnet schools in Connecticut. Findings indicate frequent intergroup interactions within interdistrict magnet schools, but also that the perceived quality of intergroup relations differs across racial groups and both the frequency and quality of intergroup contact varies considerably across schools. Students who report higher quality intergroup relations in their school also tend to report more positive academic environments and more positive attitudes towards other groups.

Drawing on the expertise of social scientists civil rights attorneys and policy analysts these original essays present the first comprehensive examination of housing integration and federal policy covering the last two decades This collection examines the ambiguities of federal fair housing law the shifting attitudes of white and black Americans toward housing integration the debate over racial quotas in housing and the efficacy of federal programs Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 banned discrimination in federally assisted housing and Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 banned discrimination in most of the private housing market Housing Desegregation and Federal Policy shows that America has made only modest progress in desegregating housing despite these federal policies Providing a balanced assessment of federal policies and programs is complicated because of disagreement over the nature of the federal government's role in this area Disagreements over the meaning of federal law coupled with white and black disinterest in desegregation have compounded the difficulties in promoting residential integration The authors employ research findings as well as legal and policy analysis in examining these complex issues They consider a broad range of issues related to housing desegregation and integration offering new sources of evidence and ideas for future research and policymaking Originally published in 1986 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value ERIC Educational Documents Index Educational Resources Information Center (U.S.),1966 A subject author institution index which provides titles and accession numbers to the document and report literature that was announced in the monthly issues of Resources in education earlier called Research in education The Jewish Veteran ,1945 The Research Quarterly of the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation ,1956 EBOOK: Experiencing Intercultural Communication: An Introduction Judith Martin,Thomas Nakayama,G.P. van Rhee van Oudtshoorn,Paul Schutte,2013-07-16 The new Southern African edition of this popular introductory textbook offers students a practical and accessible framework for developing their intercultural communication skills It provides a global perspective on intercultural communication while allowing students to contextualise their knowledge with relevant examples applications and perspectives Recognising that students in Southern African come from diverse cultural ethnic and linguistic backgrounds it provides discussion of issues and perspectives they can apply to everyday life and to broader contexts Collaboration Morten T. Hansen,2009 In Collaboration author Morten Hansen takes aim at what many leaders inherently know in today's competitive environment companywide collaboration is an imperative for successful strategy execution yet the sought after synergies are rarely if ever realized In fact most cross unit collaborative efforts end up wasting time money and resources How can managers avoid the costly traps of collaboration and instead start getting the results they need In this book Hansen shows managers how to get collaboration right through disciplined collaboration a practical framework and set of tools managers can use to Assess when and when not to pursue collaboration across units to achieve goals Identify and overcome the four barriers to collaboration Get people to buy into the larger picture even when they own only a small piece of it Be a T Shaped Manager collaborating across divisions while still working deeply in your own unit Create networks across the organization that are not large but nimble and effective Based on the author's long running research in depth case studies and company interviews Collaboration delivers practical advice and tools to help your organization collaborate for real results The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook on Workplace Diversity and Stratification Tsedale M. Melaku, Angie Beeman, Christoph Winkler, 2023-11-01 Organizations and institutions use diversity and inclusion mantras to signal opportunity and access for all. However, the real world results are often underwhelming, and people are demanding that organizations recognize the value that diversity brings to a workplace and be held accountable to the diversity and inclusion mission statements on their websites. The Rowman Littlefield Handbook on Workplace Diversity and Stratification provides a comprehensive yet concise overview of important issues, themes, and research regarding workplace diversity and stratification. The book analyzes present day and future implications of diversity in the workplace and offers concrete ways of developing policies and practices that will make diversity an intrinsic part of any organizational culture. Taking an interdisciplinary approach, the book covers topics including racism, sexism, socio-economic status, LGBTQ workers, education, intersectionality, neurodiversity, religion, and allyship. Practical, contemporary, and relevant, this is an excellent resource for anyone interested in understanding what workplace diversity and stratification mean for everyday people, institutions, and society as a whole Educational Research Document Summaries Educational Research Information Center (U.S.), 1966 Youth-serving Organizations Merritt Madison Chambers, 1948 Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie, 2014-02-03 This 2 volume work includes approximately 1,200 entries in A-Z order, critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory. In addition, nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines: political economy, management, and business, human geography, politics, sociology, law, psychology, organizational behavior, and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense.
