John says: As long as the fascination with words stays with me I shall continue my dedication to improving my verbal self-worth. The Muse has been kind to me in spite of my bipolar state due to being raped in the workplace some years ago. Writing has been so very therapeutic since that awful day. Such is my dedication that I work through the night most nights I greet the dawn in my small study and long for the day when Writer's Block is no longer a problem. I first discovered the delightful Jacaranda Tree in Pretoria, South Africa and want to thank Malgorzata Budzinski for conveying her love of this specific delight.      I Can Find Peace M. Textual Transformations Tessa Whitehouse, N. H. Keeble, 2019-12-12 Early modern books were not stable or settled outputs of the press but dynamic shape changers subject to reworking re presentation revision and reinterpretation Their history is often the history of multiple sometimes competing agencies as their texts were re packaged redirected and transformed in ways that their original authors might hardly recognize Processes of editing revision redaction selection abridgement glossing disputation translation and posthumous publication resulted in a textual elasticity and mobility that could dissolve distinctions between text and paratexts textuality and intertextuality manuscript and print author and reader or editor such that title and author's name are no longer sufficient pointers to a book's identity or contents This collection brings together original essays by an international team of eminent scholars in the field of book history that explore these various kinds of textual inconstancy and variability The essays are alive to the impact of commercial and technological aspects of book production and distribution discussing for example the career of the pre eminent bookseller John Nourse the market appeal of abridgements and the financial incentives to posthumous publication but their interest is also in the many additional forms of agency that shaped texts and their meanings as books were repurposed to articulate and respond to a variety of cultural and individual needs They engage with early modern religious political philosophical and scholarly trends and debates as they discuss a wide range of genres and kinds of publication including fictional and non fictional prose verse miscellanies abridgements sermons religious controversy and of authors including Lucy Hutchinson Richard Baxter John Dryden Thomas Burnet John Tillotson Henry Maundrell Jonathan Swift Samuel Richardson John Wesley and Samuel Taylor Coleridge The result is a richly diverse collection that demonstrates the embeddedness of the book trade in the cultural dynamics of early modernity
