Gandy,E. Davis Martin,Richard E. Hardy,1999-01-01 This text represents a complete revision and update that provides the reader with a comprehensive overview and introduction to the field of rehabilitation counseling and services but also has applicability to the growing field of community counseling Part One the introductory section discusses and describes the basic foundations of the rehabilitative process Part Two the rehabilitation process provides the reader with an insightful appreciation and understanding of the rehabilitation process In Part Three the counseling and psychosocial aspects of disability are traced from multiple points of view both theoretical and practical and psychodynamic Adlerian rational emotive behavioral and Gestalt perspectives are explored and examined The final section discusses special topics in rehabilitation appropriate for an introductory textbook but more suitable for an in depth examination The book s revisions include in part a greatly expanded chapter on the foundations of rehabilitation as well as a new historical aspects chapter Educational considerations have been expanded and incorporated into a chapter on the development of the rehabilitation counseling discipline Material on the rehabilitation process and occupational analysis and placement has been reorganized and includes new material on job development and placement New material has been included on counseling credentialing and substance use disabilities and material on international and multicultural perspectives has been reorganized and updated This outstanding text will be particularly useful in graduate introductory rehabilitation or community counseling courses and may be readily adaptable to undergraduate courses as well Additionally the book will be a very useful resource for rehabilitation or community counselor practitioners A Guide for Physician Training in Substance Abuse United States. Veterans Administration. Office of Academic Affairs,1983 Images of Issues Joel Best,2017-09-29 Constructionist theory describes and analyzes social problems as emerging through the efforts of claimsmakers who bring issues to public attention By typifying a problem and characterizing it as a particular sort claimsmakers can shape policymaking and public response to the problem Th is new edition of Images of Issues addresses claimsmaking in the 1990s featuring such issues as fathers rights stalking sexual abuse by the clergy hate crimes multicultural education factory farming and concluding with an expanded discussion of the theoretical debate over constructionism Responding to the Homeless Russell K. Schutt,Gerald R. Garrett,2013-11-21 Responding to the Homeless Policy and Practice is largely a product of a unique collaboration between Russell K Schutt and

Gerald R Garrett and their Boston community As such it offers a rich perspective on the problem of homelessness that is derived from the authors shared experience with researchers academics students providers policymakers and homeless persons themselves Schutt and Garrett take the reader into the shelters and acquaint him or her with the philosophical and practical dilemmas facing line workers as well as policymakers They also take the reader into the community to better understand the housing market and the dysfunctional continuities among shelter housing treatment and social supports There are sensitive discussions of the salient health problems that too commonly touch the lives of homeless individuals such as substance abuse and AIDS The volume also includes clear descriptions of the sometimes elusive processes of counseling and case management for homeless individuals The sidebars of what to do and what not to do contain useful information that will both inform and empower individuals who are working on the front lines and inspire and prepare future caregivers While the eminently readable organization and style of the book are suggestive of a highly practical handbook on the basics of homelessness the authors and their contributors have also produced a scholarly volume that is replete with current research findings programs descriptions case studies and vignettes
