The Architecture of Empire Gauvin Alexander Bailey, 2022-09-23 Most monumental buildings of France's global empire such as the famous Saigon and Hanoi Opera Houses were built in South and Southeast Asia Much of this architecture and the history of who built it and how has been overlooked The Architecture of Empire considers the large scale public architecture associated with French imperialism in seventeenth and eighteenth century India Siam and Vietnam and nineteenth and twentieth century Indochina the largest colony France ever administered in Asia Offering a sweeping panorama of the buildings of France's colonial project this is the first study to encompass the architecture of both the ancien régime and modern empires from the founding of the French trading company in the seventeenth century to the independence and nationalist movements of the mid twentieth century Gauvin Bailey places particular emphasis on the human factor the people who commissioned built and lived in these buildings Almost all of these architects both Europeans and non Europeans have remained unknown beyond at best their surnames Through extensive archival research this book reconstructs their lives providing vital background for the buildings themselves Much more than in the French empire of the Western Hemisphere the buildings in this book adapt to indigenous styles regardless of whether they were designed and built by European or non European architects The Architecture of Empire provides a unique comprehensive study of structures that rank among the most fascinating examples of intercultural exchange in the history of global empires

rare portrait of real women whose lives were in stark contrast to the romantic tales of their fictional counterparts Governess will resonate with the many fans of Jane Austen and the Brontës whose novels continue to inspire films and books as well as fans of The Nanny Diaries and other books that explore the longstanding tension between mothers and the women they hire to raise their children

Antiquarianism and the Visual Histories of Louis XIV Robert Wellington, 2017-07-05 Antiquarianism and the Visual Histories of Louis XIV Artifacts for a Future Past provides a new interpretation of objects and images commissioned by Louis XIV 1638-1715 to document his reign for posterity The Sun King's image makers based their prediction of how future historians would interpret the material remains of their culture on contemporary antiquarian methods creating new works of art as artifacts for a future time The need for such items to function as historical evidence led to many pictorial developments and medals played a central role in this Coin like in form but not currency the medal was the consummate antiquarian object made in imitation of ancient coins used to study the past Yet medals are often elided from the narrative of the arts of ancient France their neglect wholly disproportionate to the cultural status that they once held This revisionary study uncovers a numismatic sensibility throughout the iconography of Louis XIV and in the defining monuments of his age It looks beyond the standard political reading of the works of art made to document Louis XIV's history to argue that they are the results of a creative process wedded to antiquarianism an intellectual culture that provided a model for the production of history in the grand siècle
