Love And Marriage A Novel:

Love and Marriage Patricia Scanlan, 2017-02-07 When love flies out the window married life can be hell in this heartfelt love story that captures the demands rewards and frustrations of matrimony Irish Sunday Independent With an unplanned baby on the way a newlywed daughter whose marriage is already in trouble a teenager who won't eat and doesn't think there's anything wrong with her and familial secrets Barry and Aimee are on a rocky road In this emotional and brilliant exploration of families in crisis passion tragedy and the healing powers of love Patricia Scanlan returns with the beloved characters in Forgive and Forget and Happy Ever After and brings their story to a triumphant conclusion The Perfect Marriage Kate Kerrigan, 2015-11-01 This story is written with so much heart its beat is palpable in every word on every page Cecelia Ahern author of P.S. I Love You New York food writer Tressa returns from honeymoon worried that she has married her impossibly handsome new husband Dan out of late thirties panic instead of love In 1930s Ireland her grandmother Bernadine is married off to the local schoolteacher after her family are unable to raise a dowry for her to marry her true love Michael During the first year of her marriage Tressa distracts herself from her stay or go dilemma by working on her grandmother's recipes searching for solace and answers through their preparation Through the stories of these two women The Perfect Marriage challenges the modern ideal of romantic love as a given and ponders whether true love can really be learned Originally published as Recipes for a Perfect Marriage Love Marriage V. V. Ganeshanathan, 2008 Outstanding debut novel of fractured family relationships in modern Sri Lanka Love and Marriage Herbert M. Katz, 1975 Love Marriage Vasugi Vani Ganeshanathan, 2002 Love and the Novel G. Paizis, 1998-09-07 The popularity of romance fiction is such that it constitutes nearly one quarter of new paperback fiction printed in the world Its success depends on its ability to reflect and articulate the reader's aspirations for a better life and stands at the same time as a testament to her alienation This fresh look at the romantic fiction seeks to discover the reason for its appeal by combining analysis of the poetics of the genre with a study of the real reader's intervention The Coupling Convention : Sex, Text, and Tradition in Black Women's Fiction Ann duCille Associate Professor of English and African American Studies Wesleyan University, 1993-10-19 What does the tradition of marriage mean for people who have historically been deprived of its legal status Generally thought of as a convention of the white middle class the marriage plot has received little attention from critics of African American literature In this study Ann duCille uses texts such as Nella Larsen's Quicksand 1928 and Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God 1937 to demonstrate that the African American novel like its European and Anglo American counterparts has developed around the marriage plot what she calls the coupling convention Exploring the relationship between racial ideology and literary and social conventions duCille uses the coupling convention to trace the historical development of the African American women's novel She demonstrates the ways in which black women appropriated this novelistic device as a means of expressing and reclaiming their own identity More than just a study of the marriage tradition in black women's fiction however The Coupling Convention takes up and takes on many different meanings of tradition It challenges the notion of a single black literary tradition or of a single black feminist literary canon grounded in specifically black female language and experience as it explores the ways in which white and black male and female mainstream and marginalized traditions and canons have influenced and cross fertilized each other Much more than a period study The Coupling Convention spans the period from 1853 to 1948 addressing the vital questions of gender subjectivity race and the canon that inform literary study today In this original work duCille offers a new paradigm for reading black women s fiction

The Family Novel in Russia and England, 1800-1880 Anna A. Berman, 2022 An in depth comparative analysis of the family novel as it developed as a genre in Russia and England during the course of the nineteenth century

Love and Eugenics in the Late Nineteenth Century Angelique Richardson, 2003 The idea of eugenics human selective breeding originated in Victorian Britain in response to the urban poor Darwin s evolutionary theory had laid the foundations for eugenics replacing paradise with primordial slime Man had not fallen from Grace but risen from the swamps And as architect of his own destiny he might rise still further Eugenics was developed by Darwin s cousin Francis Galton in the 1860s Embracing the idea of evolution eugenists argued that through the judicious control of human reproduction and the numerical increase of the middle class Britain s supremacy in the world could be maintained Born and bred among the competitive Victorian middle class eugenics was a biologicistic discourse on class Aiming at racial improvement by altering the balance of class in society it was Galton argued practical Darwinism Eugenics found its most sustained expression in fiction and the periodical press and was central to late nineteenth century ideas on social progress forming part of the debate between hereditarians and environmentalists that peaked in the closing years of the century Even Gladstone had his vital statistics measured in Galton s eugenic laboratory Among the champions of eugenics were social purity feminists and New Women writers such as George Egerton Ellice Hopkins and Sarah Grand who argued that women were naturally biologically moral and that through rational reproduction middle class women could regenerate the British imperial race The New Woman has been the subject of numerous recent critical works However the oppressive ideas that coexisted with the emancipatory theories of some New Women ideas that were supremely class conscious remain largely unexamined as the focus remains on her more progressive aspects Love and Eugenics in the Late Nineteenth Century recontextualizes New Woman writers demonstrating that they were as concerned with the questions of poverty sickness and health as they were with the changing role of women the issue for which they are currently generally known and celebrated Focusing on fiction and the press and drawing on the papers and published work of Galton and other eugenists Angelique Richardson reveals the cultural pervasiveness of eugenics and explores for the first time the intimate relations between early feminism and eugenics and making a radical contribution to nineteenth century studies Studying English Literature in Context Paul Poplawski,2022-10-13 From early medieval times to the present this diverse collection of thirty one essays sets literary texts in their historical contexts The Victorian Art of Fiction Rohan Maitzen,2009-06-11 The Victorian Art of Fiction presents important Victorian statements on the form and function of fiction The essays in this anthology address questions of genre such as realism and sensationalism questions of gender and authorship questions of form such as characterization plot construction and narration and questions about the morality of fiction The editor discusses where Victorian writing on the novel has been placed in accounts of the history of criticism and then suggests some reasons for reconsidering this conventional evaluation Among the featured essayists and critics are John Ruskin Walter Bagehot George Henry Lewes Leslie Stephen Anthony Trollope and Robert Louis Stevenson the classic essays include George Eliot s Silly Novels by Lady Novelists and Henry James s The Art of Fiction R.K. Narayan Chhote Lal Khatri,2006 Comprehensive study on the works on Rasipuram Krishnaswamy Narayan 1906 2001 Indian English novelist Photoplay ,1924 The Gospel of Marriage Earl Ronneberg,2014-05-14 The Gospel of Marriage is a novel that examines love marriage their associated issues and the conflicts of values that arise both before and after marriage Those value conflicts occur in the novel through the lives of the principal male and female characters Edward and Kate who are in a relationship at the start of the story That relationship is framed by a mystery that serves to focus the reader s interest through how the mystery is viewed by the two other characters Gregory and Phyllis for through the action of the novel they both become involved in the lives of Edward and Kate and by that association with the mystery The ideas about love and marriage and all of the related issues come out through the reader s examination of the lives of Edward and Kate both past and present for Kate and through the present life of Edward But there are numerous texts which are brought into play that extend well beyond Kate and Edward s lives Examples of how this works are many and various The title of the novel The Gospel of Marriage refers to Kate s performance she is an actress a Julliard acting school graduate in a play by the same name The entire text of that play including stage directions is included as part of the plot of the novel it establishes its authority through the notion of a Gospel which is interpreted as any guiding principle for action in this case the arena is that of social philosophy The play is a body of analysis that argues for a view of marriage love fulfillment and many other notions the concepts in the play stand in sharp contrast to much of what is happening in marriages in the United States today There are seven acts in The Gospel of Marriage play which amounts to a one woman monologue given in the context of experimental theater Each act consists of several sections and taken altogether those sections form a plethora of analysis ranging from various philosophers other plays books and the conclusions of sociologists each of these sources add to the collective story that the novel is telling Other sources that focus the reader's attention are love letters between Kate and Edward from Kate's past the reader is exposed to a transcript of a radio interview which explores how feminism rose after WW II and the story of how the modern gothic novel became the best selling genre for over a decade in the United States Kate explains how in the interview the analysis of the modern gothic novel prompted her to choose her acting career Through the life story and poems of Elizabeth Barrett Browning further themes with respect to marriage et al are introduced Barrett Browning's life and poems also serve as a catalyst for Edward to use his own poetry which is spoken aloud in a conversation between Edward and Kate There are then an extraordinary number of viewpoints they range from modern research on marriage to complete plays as well as portions of plays short sequences or plot summaries as well as poetry novels and the fictional and actual life experiences of women poets Together with philosophical excerpts from major French Russian Swiss English and even Scandinavian writers and philosophers all of whom inform the plot of the entire action of The Gospel of Marriage the novel presents a timely and thought provoking journey for any man or woman already married or anticipating marriage
