Slices Of Life: Moments, Meals, Meanings and The World We Share Radhika

Sarathkumar, This collection of poetic expressions entitled Slices of Life Moments Meals Meanings and The World We Share is a compendium of genuine heartfelt emotions sometimes funny sometimes weird sometimes emotionally touching sometimes philosophical and undoubtedly often a spontaneous overflow to borrow from Wordsworthian concept Radhika S the author who penned these poems has given a free play to her innermost self which is driven by the need to be grateful faithful and at times by the mysterious sensibilities that life offers Each poem is unique in its own way presenting a kaleidoscopic view of people and moments as perceived by the author herself No doubt the poems are autobiographical inspired by the memories and cherished moments and also by people who made a difference even of the slightest kind in the author's life The book would definitely be a good read to get a glimpse of the interesting and impactful Slices of Life that everybody can relate to Making Love Grow Lance Webb,1983 Sleeping Next to a Stranger: When Love Grows Cold. Margaret Light,2025-09-06 Sleeping Next to a Stranger When Love Grows Cold explores the silent drift that can transform intimacy into isolation This book uncovers why relationships lose warmth how emotional distance develops and the subtle signs that love is fading Through deep reflection on communication breakdowns unmet needs and personal patterns it guides readers toward understanding healing and conscious choice Whether seeking to reconnect reclaim independence or rediscover self worth readers will learn to navigate the pain of disconnection embrace emotional resilience and cultivate authentic fulfilling relationships It is a compassionate roadmap for waking to yourself while honouring the journey of love

Theological and Philosophical Explorations of the Call of Literature David Lonsdale, Emilia Di Rocco, Brett H. Speakman,2025-05-23 This book explores the call of literature for both writers and their audiences and reflects on how literary works have informed and drawn from and continue to inform and draw from theology philosophy and sacred scripture Key questions addressed include the following How do creative writers and critics conceive this call What does it mean to speak of a vocation to write and what have theologians and philosophers got to say on the matter Is the spirit of literature always or necessarily an angel of light Or is the call of literature a siren song The essays by an international and interdisciplinary range of contributors discuss the work and testimony of writers from William Blake Gerard Manley Hopkins and R S Thomas to James Joyce Virginia Woolf and Michel Houellebecq Also examined are the ideas and influence of figures such as John Henry Newman who wrote that the importance of literature stems from our very nature and God given powers as human beings especially language This latest volume from The Power of the Word Project will be of interest to scholars from theology philosophy and literature
