dead Agents of Witchcraft in Early Modern Italy and Denmark L. Kallestrup, 2015-05-28 This book offers a comparison of lay and inquisitorial witchcraft prosecutions In most of the early modern period witchcraft jurisdiction in Italy rested with the Roman Inquisition whereas in Denmark only the secular courts raised trials Kallestrup explores the narratives of witchcraft as they were laid forward by people involved in the trials Magic in Apuleius' 'Apologia' Leonardo Costantini, 2019-01-14 Despite the growing interest in Apuleius Apologia or Pro se de magia a speech he delivered in AD 158 159 to defend himself against the charge of being a magus the only comprehensive study on this speech and magic to date is that by Adam Abt 1908 The aim of this volume is to shed new light on the extent to which Apuleius speech reveals his own knowledge of magic and on the implications of the dangerous allegations brought against Apuleius By analysing the Apologia sequentially the author does not only reassess Abt's analysis but proposes a new reconstruction of the prosecution's case arguing that it is heavily distorted by Apuleius Since ancient magic is the main topic of this speech an extensive discussion of the topic is provided offering a new semantic taxonomy of magus and its cognates Finally this volume also explores Apuleius forensic techniques and the Platonic ideology underpinning his speech It is proposed that a Platonising reasoning distinguishing between higher and lower concepts lies at the core of Apuleius rhetorical strategy and that Apuleius aims to charm the judge the audience and ultimately his readers with the irresistible power of his arguments Feast, Fast or Famine Wendy Mayer, Silke Trzcionka, 2005-01-01 In recent decades there has been an increasing interest in the study of food and drink in the ancient Mediaeval and Byzantine worlds and of their supply and consumption This volume presents selected papers from the biennial conference of the Australian Association for Byzantine Studies which was held at the University of Adelaide 11 12 July 2003 The theme was food and drink in Byzantium Published selectively in the present volume the papers of the conference are augmented by contributions from international scholars While some papers address the use of food directly children's diet fasting or tangentially in love spells or discuss philosophical approaches towards food vegetarianism other papers in this volume examine the topic from another perspective the role and perception of food and drink and their consumption in society Yet others examine issues of supply military logistics and the role it played in shaping Byzantium This volume will appeal to readers interested in the history of food in late antique and Byzantine society in Byzantine rhetoric in magic in late antiquity and in the Jews in early Byzantium The Nordic Grimoire: Spells and Rituals of the Vikings Nick Creighton, Dive deep into the ancient wisdom of the North with The Nordic Grimoire Spells and Rituals of the Vikings a comprehensive guide that brings the powerful magic and profound rituals of the Vikings to the modern seeker This tome serves as a gateway to understanding and practicing the spellwork that was woven into the fabric of Norse society Inside you'll discover Detailed explanations of the historical and mythological context behind each spell and ritual Step by step guides to performing Norse rituals and creating spells for protection prosperity and more Insights into the significance of Norse gods and their roles in spellwork including Thor Odin and Freyja An exploration of runic magic and how these

A very satisfying book persuasive in showing how material culture and household devotion are central to the workings of lived Anglicanism in eighteenth century Virginia. David D. Hall, Harvard Divinity School. Priestess, Mother, Sacred Sister Susan Starr Sered, 1996-04-11. Religion is often denounced as one of the tools used by patriarchal societies to maintain the status quo and especially to persuade women to accept subordinate roles. This does not explain, however, the existence of many religious groups in which women are both leaders and the majority of participants. How are these women's religions different from those dominated by men? What can we learn from them about the special ways in which women experience their unique reality? In this fascinating and pathbreaking work, the first comparative study of women's religions, Susan Starr Sered seeks answers to these compelling questions. Looking for common threads linking groups as diverse as the ancestral cults of the Black Caribs of Belize, Korean shamanism, Christian Science and the Feminist Spirituality movement, Sered finds that motherhood and motherly concerns play a vital role in these female-dominated groups. Nurturing and concern for others are at the center, as are healing arts and ways of dealing with illness and the death of children. Religion not only enables women to find sacred meaning in their daily lives, from the preparation of food to caring for their families, but an offer of intense and personal relationships with deities and spirits, often through ecstatic possession trances as well as opportunities to celebrate and mourn with other women. By examining the shared experiences of women across great cultural divides, Priestess, Mother, Sacred Sister offers a new understanding of the role gender plays in determining how individuals grapple with the ultimate questions of existence. In the process, it not only highlights the profound differences between men and women but the equally important ways in which we are all alike. Love Spells Mags Pie, 2023-09-01. This book is your door to a mesmerizing journey through the captivating realm of love spells from diverse cultures around the world. My work unearths the hidden treasures of cross-cultural romance magic, unveiling ancient rituals and modern incantations that have brought hearts together for generations. The key to a happy life is to easily get what you want and to want what you have. Most people make a mistake; they fixate on a certain object or event in their life instead of attracting the desired by changing themselves. Through inner work, we change reality much more easily and get the desired result without any problems. This is called reality manipulation or, in other words, magic. A few years ago I read the novel Tuareg by the Spanish writer Alberto Vazquez.
