Dublinesque Enrique Vila-Matas, 2012-07-09. In this novel Enrique Vila Matas traces a journey connecting the worlds of Joyce and Beckett and all they symbolize. One night a renowned and now retired literary publisher has a vivid dream that takes place in Dublin a city he s never visited. The central scene of the dream is a funeral in the era of Ulysses. The publisher would give anything to know if an unidentified character in his dream is the great author he always wanted to meet or the ghostly angel who abandoned him during childhood. As the days go by he will come to understand that his vision of the end of an era was prophetic Enrique Vila.

The Restored New Testament: A New Translation with Commentary, Including the Gnostic Gospels Thomas, Mary, and Judas Willis Barnstone, 2009-09-22 From acclaimed scholar Willis Barnstone The Restored New Testament newly translated from the Greek and informed by Semitic sources For the first time since the King James Version in 1611 Willis Barnstone has given us an amazing literary and historical version of the New Testament Barnstone preserves the original song of the Bible rendering a large part in poetry and the epic Revelation in incantatory blank verse This monumental translation is the first to restore the original Greek Aramaic and Hebrew names Markos for Mark Yeshua for Jesus thereby revealing the Greco Jewish identity of biblical people and places Citing historical and biblical scholarship he changes the sequence of texts and adds three seminal Gnostic gospels Each book has elegant introductions and is thoroughly annotated

With its superlative writing and lyrical wisdom The Restored New Testament is a magnificent biblical translation for our age Who Is Mary? Vittoria Colonna, Chiara Matraini, Lucrezia Marinella, 2010-07-15 For women of the Italian Renaissance the Virgin Mary was one of the most important role models Who Is Mary presents devotional works written by three women better known for their secular writings Vittoria Colonna famed for her Petrarchan lyric verse Chiara Matraini one of the most original poets of her generation and the wide ranging intellectually ambitious polemicist Lucrezia Marinella At a time when the cult of the Virgin was undergoing a substantial process of redefinition these texts cast fascinating light on the beliefs of Catholic women in the Renaissance and also in the cases of Matraini and Marinella on contemporaneous women s social behavior prescribed for them by male writers in books on female decorum Who Is Mary testifies to the emotional and spiritual relationships that women had with the figure of Mary whom they were required to emulate as the epitome of femininity Now available for the first time in English language translation these writings suggest new possibilities for women in both religious and civil culture and provide a window to women s spirituality concerning the most important icon set before them as wives mothers and Christians
