Love Letters to Navigate the Grief Journey Andrew Rienstra,2021-12-16 It was approaching noon and my wife and three other women in her photography club were due to return home after a morning of photography at a nearby alpaca ranch I was waiting anxiously because we had scheduled a golf match at our local country club after a quick lunch As I restlessly looked out the front window for her car I witnessed a state police vehicle pull into the driveway Two officers emerged and walked toward our front door I welcomed them and inquired as to the reason for their visit The young female officer asked if I had heard about an accident on Route 209 I replied that I had not She informed me that a large semitrailer truck had rear ended a car stopped at a traffic light She hesitated a moment and then added Your wife was a passenger in the back seat of the car and was killed Following the subsequent funeral that announcement continued to haunt me Grief became more pronounced each passing day In a conversation about my condition with a friend he made the comment that I try dealing with my grief by writing As we talked further I mentioned how much I missed talking with her how our conversations were always so alive and animated This prompted another recommendation Write her letters express to her your feelings of grief and more I liked that and this book is the result It consists of a series of letters to Mae whoever remains alive in my imagination It has helped bring my grief to the surface and provide necessary therapy I have determined to publish with the hope that in some way it may provide grief insight for others who have lost loved ones
