Major Studies Of Minority Business A Bibliographic Review:

Major studies of minority business Timothy Bates,1991 Federal Minority Business Programs United States. Congress. House. Committee on Small Business,1991 The Inner City Thomas D. Boston,Catherine Ross,2017-07-12

Michael Porter has argued that a sustainable economic base can be created in the inner city only if it has been created elsewhere through private for profit initiatives and investment based on economic self interest and genuine competitive advantage not through artificial inducements charity or government Porter s ideas have prompted endorsement as well as criticism More importantly they have inspired a search for new solutions to inner city distress as well as a reassessment of current approaches The Inner City defines a core debate in the United States over the future of a racially divided urban America It is of inestimable importance to policy analysts government officials African American studies scholars urban studies specialists sociologists and all those concerned with inner city revitalization America Becoming National Research Council,Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education,2001-01-25 The 20th Century has been marked by enormous change in terms of how we define race In large part we have thrown out the antiquated notions of the 1800s giving way to a more realistic sociocultural view of the world The United States is perhaps more than any other industrialized country distinguished by the size and diversity of its racial and ethnic minority populations Current trends promise that these features will endure Fifty years from now there will most likely be no single majority group in the United States How will we fare as a nation when race based issues such as immigration job opportunities and affirmative action are already so contentious today In America Becoming leading scholars and commentators explore past and current trends among African Americans Hispanics Asian Americans and Native Americans in the context of a white majority This volume presents the most up to date findings and analysis on racial and social dynamics with recommendations for ongoing research It examines compelling issues in the field of race relations including Race and ethnicity in criminal justice Demographic and social trends for Hispanics Asian Americans and Native Americans Trends in minority owned businesses Wealth welfare and racial stratification Residential segregation and the meaning of neighborhood Disparities in educational test scores among races and ethnicities Health and development for minority children adolescents and adults Race and ethnicity in the labor market including the role of minorities in America s military Immigration and the dynamics of race and ethnicity The changing meaning of race Changing racial attitudes This collection of papers compiled and edited by distinguished leaders in the behavioral and social sciences represents the most current literature in the field Volume 1 covers demographic trends immigration racial attitudes and the geography of opportunity Volume 2 deals with the criminal justice system the labor market welfare and health trends Both books will be of great interest to educators scholars researchers students social scientists and policymakers Confronting the Odds Bessie House-Soremekun,2002 An interest in the history of African American entrepreneurship has produced a number of studies of economic development on the national level but very few have examined this growth at the local level Against All Odds was written to bridge that gap Bessie House Soremekun provides a historical analysis of black entrepreneurship in Cleveland Ohio from the early 1800s to the present day Soremekun s statistical analysis of the factors that contributed to the success of African American businesses in Cleveland is supported by extensive research and her policy recommendations about how entrepreneurship could be stimulated through public and private programs are thought provoking In addition examining historical and current trends of African American entrepreneurship Soremekun presents brief biographies of several successful entrepreneurs among them best selling author George Fraser and internationally acclaimed architect Robert P Madison The book also documents the life histories of business owners who have had unsuccessful business experiences compares black male and female business owners and offers insights into why some businesses succeed while others fail Against All Bibliographic Index ,2001 Race, Poverty, and American Cities John Charles Boger, Judith Welch Wegner, 1996 Precise connections between race poverty and the condition of America s cities are drawn in this collection of seventeen essays Policymakers and scholars from a variety of disciplines analyze the plight of the urban poor since the riots of the 1960s an Major Studies of Minority Business Timothy Mason Bates, 1993 Reviews and analyzes more than 90 books articles and reports on minority owned businesses The works reviewed include analyses of government programs for business assistance studies of minority entrepreneurs and their firms and the impact of minority owned businesses on clients employees and others Twelve of the works reviewed concern the minority business community before World War II American Reference Books Annual Juneal M. Chenoweth, 1995-04-15 With more than 1600 descriptive and evaluative entries ARBA continues its 26 year tradition as a comprehensive review source for reference works published or distributed in the US ARBA 95 encompasses the subject spectrum covering such broad areas as general reference history education economics and business and science and technology Of special note in this edition is increased coverage of CD ROM products More than 350 reviewers provide reviews that cover strengths and weaknesses of the reference works Journal of Economic Literature ,2000 Annual Report Joint Center for Political and Economic Studies (U.S.)., Fiscal, Economic, and Social Crises Confronting American Cities United States.
