Wagner, 2006-03-01 In this book noted Nordic researchers and teacher educators provide insights into early childhood discourses and practices in Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden In addition to these insiders perspectives an American scholars explore Nordic themes trends and practices as they emerge in the book s chapters on such varied topics as Nordic childhoods children s perspectives preschool teacher education reforms and developments transition from preschool to primary school learning through play caregiving and instruction      The Art of Sermon Illustration Harry Jeffs, 1909      Radio Script Catalog Gertrude Golden Broderick, 1950      Oral and Written Narratives and Cultural Identity Francisco Cota Fagundes, Irene Maria Blayer, 2007 This interdisciplinary volume centers on the interrelations of storytelling and various manifestations of cultural identity from written to oral and from autobiographical to regional and national Indigenous storytelling as well as storytelling for and by children and the elderly are the main focus of these essays Together these fifteen texts make a significant contribution toward a deeper understanding of various aspects of textual and oral narrative they broaden the lines of inquiry into multidisciplinary and multicultural interests particularly those centering on the construction expression and contextualization of various types of identity and they illustrate the deployment of storytelling not only as testimony contestation and subversion but also as peacebuilding Many countries languages and cultures are herein represented from the United States and Canada to Japan Singapore and Malaysia from English to Japanese to Greek to Italian to the languages of indigenous peoples of Latin America and the Philippines      The Mysteries of Life in Children's Literature Mitchell Kalpakgian, 2000 FAIRY TALES AND MYTHS have enriched childhood for centuries In between Once upon a time and happily ever after we embark on adventures that seem an eternity away from our everyday lives Yet nothing could be further from the truth In The Mysteries of Life in Children s Literature journey through a treasury of beloved fables and folk tales and discover the wisdom hiding within In an age that rejects moral absolutes children s literature restores the meaning of good and evil beautiful and ugly normal and abnormal and helps us see the nature of our world more clearly than we ever have before      Hawaiki, the Original Home of the Maori Stephenson Percy Smith, 1921      The Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine Josiah Gilbert Holland, Richard Watson Gilder, 1886      THE CENTURY ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY MAGAZINE MAY 1886 TO OCTOBER 1886 F. Warne, 1886      Curtain , 1922      The Paradoxes of Modernity Zachary Simpson, 2022-05-10 A paradox lies at the heart of modernity the simultaneous demand to create ideas to make us better humans and communities along with the contrary imperative that we criticize all ideals especially the ones we have created In philosophy we see this paradox most acutely in figures like

Immanuel Kant who states that we cannot know the essence of things and yet we must retain old ideas God freedom and the soul in order to become better and more ethical humans Or in Friedrich Nietzsche whose eternal recurrence a self created myth whose sole purpose is to get us to see the value in the everyday This basic scheme belief and un belief is one of the fundamental elements of modernity manifesting itself in the philosophies of Herbert Marcuse and Michel Foucault along with the theologies of Blaise Pascal C S Lewis William James Sallie McFague and Philip Clayton How do we live out the values we know to be constructions This question holds captive our ability to solve public goods problems and make our lives more meaningful Instead of seeing this paradox of modernity as self deception or bad faith Zachary Simpson employs cognitive and social scientific research to explain how best to realize values that we know to be false through art community and ritual In Simpson s account the values we construct must conform to narrative be reinforced through community and habituated through ritual And yet modernity has also undermined collectivity and ritual Thus arises the second paradox of modernity the best tools we have for realizing values are those which devalue the individual modern subject The last part of the book attempts to make three normative points regarding modernity First the modern individualist subject is insufficient to realize the very values and aspirations of modernity We must recognize that humans are collective and communal Second we cannot simply create values they must arise in communities and be realized through narrative and ritual And third if we are to live meaningful lives as contemporary meta ethicists and positive psychologists argue then such lives must include art community and ritual as a way to affirm and reinforce one s values Let s Pretend is a statement about one of the dilemmas of the contemporary western world and how that dilemma is and might be resolved How do we believe in the values that we know will make a better world even if they are of our own making We must do so in part by becoming less modern by engaging with one another and imagining more The book should serve as both an essay in the history of Western thought as well as a constructive argument about the nature of the modern epoch and what resources we have to realize the central aspirations of modernity It aims to fill a critical lacuna in theoretical and philosophical approaches to modernity While most texts focus on either the need for created values or the need to remedy modern subjectivity few if any link the two problems together Moreover they do not ground their analyses in the social sciences and contemporary findings regarding the efficacy of narrative communal action and rituals The book is unique then because it asks a central question how do we believe in what we know to be false and because it answers this question using interdisciplinary methods that allow us to see the faultlines and paradoxes of our age

Joshua'S Tree Clive Alando Taylor, 2016-12-28 Joshua Binks a poor black boy growing up with his single mother set against the racial background of Southern America during the early 1930s has a very vivid imagination in possessing a secret divine as his life unfolds and is seen through his innocent eyes and a pure heart of a child in infancy and youth Joshuas world is inhabited by fictional characters of fairytale and make believe muses who come to life within Joshuas fantasy dream world as it is this setting where we are led into Joshuas world of animated and colorful characters open to his bemusement as Joshua also has a unique and mysteriously transcending connection that is tied to the trees that often whisper his name within this world taking his mind into a place of fantasy During his childhood Joshua has an accident which changes the course of his life and takes away his ability to communicate without stuttering and so adds to his disappointment and disadvantages in his life As the events of Joshua's tragic life unfold we are also led back and forth into his world of fantasy Joshua also experiences racial prejudice and discrimination from his peers when he fails to enlist into the army and is made to work as a kitchen porter although in his waking dreams where he relies upon the narrative of the stories that were once etched into his imagination he is still very much frowned upon and looked down and treated unfairly As a kitchen porter in the army Joshua also becomes the concern and a friend to his fellow comrades and potential soldiers in the making although they seem to pity his disposition As his relationships begin to blossom amongst the elements of racial tension it is under this climate that things begin to develop as Joshua is taken under the wing of a young Christian girl who attempts to teach him to read and write But just when things appear to be progressing once again the racial tension boils over until there is a bitter feud involving this simple and naive Joshua which results in him trying to help his friend escape and by doing so he is made to be the victim of a tragic event
