Making A Nest In The Hills:

The Journal of the Bombay Natural History Society Bombay Natural History Society, 1923 Attracting Birds in the Texas Hill Country W. Rufus Stephens, Jan Wrede, 2016-12-22 After years of working with landowners land managers naturalists county officials and others about wildlife management and land stewardship for birds in the Texas Hill Country biologist Rufus Stephens and educator Jan Wrede teamed up to write a practical guidebook on how to improve habitat for birds on both small and large properties throughout the Hill Country Because each bird species has specific needs for cover food water nesting and rearing their young the book is organized by Hill Country habitat types wooded slopes and savannahs grasslands rivers and creeks canyons seeps and springs tanks and ponds plus residential backyards Each chapter contains an in depth discussion of common problems and possible solutions for developing optimum habitat The book showcases 107 species in their habitats with color photographs and a short descriptive account of how to know the bird and care for its habitat Three additional chapters on predator control deer management and cedar management offer detailed information on these special issues that impact the presence of birds throughout the region As a comprehensive guide to habitat assessment identification of birds and the habitats they use plus stewardship practices that will benefit these birds Attracting Birds in the Texas Hill Country offers landowners the ideal how to manual for writing an effective Wildlife Tax Valuation plan By helping readers recognize and evaluate habitat health and then use appropriate habitat enhancement practices the authors hope to inspire and enable widespread and effective bird conservation in the Texas Hill Country And as bird populations flourish so do the populations of other wildlife The Charm of the Hills Seton Paul Gordon, 1912 Make for the Hills Robert

Thompson, 1989-06-01 When Robert Thompson left Cambridge to join the Malayan Civil Service in 1938 the sun still shone on the British Empire for 24 hours a day The outbreak of war in the Pacific found him in Hong Kong from which he was obliged to make a hurried and dramatic exit From that point most of his working life was spent in military and political circles as one of the world s leading experts on counterinsurgency measures on which subject he has written a number of highly regarded works Now with wit and modesty he tells the story of his own eventful life After the war during which he served in both operations in Burma he returned to Malaya and it was there during the Emergency that he gained the experience in anti terrorist operations which was eventually to lead him as special adviser to Vietnam and on to Washington En route he was privileged to meet many of the most influential and controversial figures of his time from Wingate and Templer to Kennedy Nixon and Kissinger His comments on these and many others are candid and revealing Make for the Hills is both a fascinating autobiography and an important addition to the history of the post war world especially that of South East Asia

Hill Country Landowner's Guide James P. Stanley, 2009-11-09 In this invaluable new book Jim Stanley charts a practical course for understanding and handling a variety of problems that both new and established landowners in the Texas Hill Country will confront from brush control grazing and overpopulation of deer to erosion fire and management of exotic animals and plants Filled with advice that landowners can easily absorb and implement this book conveys basic knowledge Stanley has gained from personal experience and from other experts during his years in the Hill Country Annual Report Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station,1914 Vols 41 1916 17 include the Station s Bulletin and other of Its publications which are also issued separately The Land of the Hills and the Glens Seton Paul Gordon,1920 The Edinburgh Review ,1877 The Emu ,1919 Insects and Ant-plants ,1904 Bulletin of the American Museum of Natural History American Museum of Natural History,1906 Comprises articles on geology paleontology mammalogy ornithology entomology and anthropology Making a Nest in the Hills Joy Barrow,2002 The author recounts the experiences of herself and her family when they leave the city and establish a vineyard in Mudgee Appendices include details of financing and strategy

The Small Hill M.L. Anderson,2023-01-06 The Small Hill is a sacred place a healing place where the ancients buried their dead and holy men came to preach In the reign of Henry I a knight stood on the hill a young warrior straight from the heat of battle and knew the hill and the surrounding land was to be his A settlement grew and a Norman church with a solid square tower was built on the top Over the centuries many who owned the land and many who worked on the land were equally drawn to stand on the hill in front of the tower to look out into the distance From the knight in the 12th century to Tom an old retired tenant farmer in the 20th century men stood on the hill looking out to the horizon to dream of the future or remember the past each one feeling the small hill s spell
