The Making of the Popes 1978 Andrew M. Greeley, 1979 Chronicles the death of two popes and the election of their successors in the space of only two months Dust jacket The Making of the Pope. Additional Text by Dawson Taylor... Tony Spina, Dawson Taylor, 1962 The Making of the Pope Andrew M. Greeley, 2005 After twenty six years under the leadership of the charismatic socially conservative John Paul II the future of a Church which is increasingly at odds with a secular modern world hung in the balance as cardinals from all over the globe gathered to vote for the new pontiff On Tuesday 19th April 2005 after three rounds of voting the conclave finally elected Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger seen as the most traditionalist candidate to become Pope Benedict XVI the 256th head of the Catholic Church Father Andrew M Greeley is uniquely placed to give a fascinating insight into the politics coalitions and rumour swapping that lead up to the election of the new Pope as well as its long term implications for the Catholic Church He is a priest with inside access to the Vatican and also a seasoned journalist and sociologist who has been a leading voice in the catholic community for decades Popes, Councils, and Theology Owen F. Cummings,2021-06-15 Do you wish to understand something of the contemporary Catholic Church If you do then this book is for you It offers a careful overview of the history of the church from the mid nineteenth century with Pope Pius IX until the present day with Pope Francis It deals with two major councils of the church Vatican I 1869 70 and Vatican II 1962 65 Furthermore it provides a detailed and accurate summary of the major theological movements in the church during this period The Making of the Pope. (Additional text by Dawson Taylor.) [On papal elections, with special reference to Pope John XXIII. With plates and illustrations, including portraits.] Tony Spina,Dawson Taylor,1962 Pope's Manual of Nursing Procedure Amy Elizabeth Pope,1919 The Making of a Pope Corrado Pallenberg,1964 The History of the Popes Ludwig Freiherr von Pastor,1924 Landscapes and Voices of the Great War Angela K. Smith,Krista Cowman,2017-02-03 This volume continues the recent trend towards expanding definitions of war experience through considering a range of different landscapes and voices Not all landscapes were comprised of trenches and barbed wire Voices supporting or dissenting were many and varied Collectively they combine to offer fresh insights into the multiplicity of war experience alternate spaces to the familiar tropes of mud and mayhem The Making of the Pope Tony Spina,1962 Making Martyrs East and West Cathy Caridi,2016-03-14 In Making Martyrs East and West Cathy Caridi examines how the practice of canonization developed in the West and in Russia focusing on procedural elements that became established requirements for someone to be recognized as a saint and a martyr Caridi investigates whether the components of the canonization process now regarded as necessary by the Catholic Church are fundamentally equivalent to those of the Russian Orthodox Church and vice versa while exploring the possibility that the churches use the same terminology and processes but in fundamentally different ways that preclude the acceptance of one church s saints by the other Making Martyrs East and West will appeal to scholars of religion and church history as well as ecumenicists liturgists canonists and those interested in East West ecumenical efforts Annotation in Eighteenth-Century Poetry Michael Edson,2017-10-18 Recent years have witnessed a growing fascination with the printed annotations accompanying eighteenth century texts Previous studies of annotation have revealed the margins as dynamic textual spaces both shaping and shaped by diverse aesthetic historical and political sensibilities Yet previous studies have also been restricted to notes by or for canonical figures they have neglected annotation s relation to developments in reading audiences and the book trade and they have overlooked the interaction even tension between prose notes and poetry a tension reflecting eighteenth century views of poetry as aesthetically superior to prose Annotation in Eighteenth Century Poetry addresses these oversights through a substantial introduction and eleven essays analyzing the printed endnotes and footnotes accompanying poems written or annotated between 1700 and 1830 Drawing on methods and critical developments in book history and print culture studies this collection explores the functions that annotation performed on and through the printed page By analyzing the annotation specific to poetry these essays clarify the functions of notes among the other paratexts including illustrations by which scholars have mapped poetry's relation to the expanding book trade and the class specific production of different formats Because the reading and writing of poetry boasted social and pedagogical functions that predate the rise of the note as a print technology studying the relation of notes to poetry also reveals how the evolving layout of the eighteenth century book wrought significant changes not only on reading practices and reception but on the techniques that booksellers used to make new poems steady sellers and antiquarian discoveries legible to new readers Above all analyzing notes in poetry volumes contributes to larger inquiries into canon formation and the rise of literary studies as a discipline in the eighteenth century

Colonel Albert Pope and His American Dream Machines Stephen B. Goddard, 2015-11-06 In the 1890s Colonel Albert A Pope was hailed as a leading American automaker That his name is not a household word today is the very essence of his story Pope's production methods as the world's largest manufacturer of bicycles led to the building of automobiles with lightweight metals rubber tires precision machining interchangeable parts and vertical integration The founder of the Good Roads Movement Pope entered automobile manufacturing while steam electricity and gasoline power were still vying for supremacy The story of his failed dream of dominating U S automobile production is an engrossing view into America's industrial history

From the American System to Mass Production, 1800-1932 David Hounshell, 1984 David A Hounshell's widely acclaimed history explores the American genius for mass production and traces its origins in the nineteenth century American system of manufacture Previous writers on the American system have argued that the technical problems of mass production had been solved by armsmakers before the Civil War Drawing upon the extensive business and manufacturing records of leading American firms Hounshell demonstrates that the diffusion of arms production technology was neither as fast nor as smooth as had been assumed Exploring the manufacture of sewing machines and furniture bicycles and reapers he shows that both the expression mass production and the technology that lay behind it were developments of the twentieth century attributable in large part to the Ford Motor Company Hounshell examines the importance of individuals in the diffusion and development of production technology and the central place of marketing strategy in the success of selected American manufacturers Whereas Ford was the seedbed of the assembly line revolution it was General Motors that initiated a new era with its introduction of the annual model change With the new marketing strategy the technology of the changeover became of paramount importance Hounshell chronicles how painfully Ford learned this lesson and recounts how the successful mass production of automobiles led to the establishment of an ethos of mass production to an era in which proponents of Fordism argued that mass production would solve all of America's social
