together a series of essays about art in Hong Kong written over the last ten years with the intention of offering a personal chronicle of the Hong Kong art world during a time of great change. Many of the essays concern themselves with the work of local artists but Western and Chinese artists whose works have been exhibited in Hong Kong during this period are also discussed. In addition to a consideration of particular artists and works of art there are also essays which engage with debates that have been taking place in Hong Kong concerning curatorship and various arts policy issues. Fully illustrated and written in a straightforward style, Art and Place is one of the first serious attempts to evaluate the art of Hong Kong. It should be of use to anyone interested in the cultural life of one of Asia's leading cities. New York Magazine, 1995-11-06

New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea. Los Angeles Magazine, 2001-12

Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature. Our combination of award winning feature writing, investigative reporting, service journalism, and design covers the people, lifestyle, culture, entertainment, fashion, art, and architecture and news that define Southern California. Started in the spring of 1961, Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years. The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian. Los Angeles Magazine, 2001-11

Masayo Duus, 2006-11-05

Isamu Noguchi, born in Los Angeles as the illegitimate son of an American mother and a Japanese poet father, was one of the most prolific yet enigmatic figures in the history of twentieth century American art. Throughout his life, Noguchi (1904-1998) grappled with the ambiguity of his identity as an artist caught up in two cultures. His personal struggles as well as his many personal triumphs are vividly chronicled in The Life of Isamu Noguchi, the first full length biography of this remarkable artist. Published in connection with the centennial of the artist's birth, the book draws on Noguchi's letters, his reminiscences, and interviews with his friends and colleagues to cast new light on his youth, his creativity, and his relationships. During his sixty year career, there was hardly a genre that Noguchi failed to explore. He produced more than 2,500 works of sculpture, designed furniture, lamps, and stage sets, created dramatic public gardens all over the world, and pioneered the development of environmental art. After studying in Paris where he befriended Alexander

Calder and worked as an assistant to Constantin Brancusi he became an ardent advocate for abstract sculpture Noguchi's private life was no less passionate than his artistic career The book describes his romances with many women among them the dancer Ruth Page the painter Frida Kahlo and the writer Anaïs Nin Despite his fame Noguchi always felt himself an outsider With my double nationality and my double upbringing where was my home he once wrote Where were my affections Where my identity Never entirely comfortable in the New York art world he inevitably returned to his father's homeland where he had spent a troubled childhood This prize winning biography first published in Japanese traces Isamu Noguchi's lifelong journey across these artistic and cultural borders in search of his personal identity

Eye of the Sixties Judith E. Stein, 2024-05-01 An evocative portrait of one of the most influential and enigmatic American art dealers of the 1960s Barbara Rose The New York Times In 1959 Richard Bellamy was a witty poetry loving beatnik on the fringe of the New York art world By 1965 he was representing Mark di Suvero had been the first to show Andy Warhol's pop art and had introduced the new genre of installation art An eccentric art dealer and founder of the Green Gallery on Fifty Seventh Street Bellamy helped discover many of the innovative successors to the abstract expressionists including Claes Oldenburg James Rosenquist Donald Judd Dan Flavin Walter de Maria and many others But uninterested in anything more than showing the artists he loved Bellamy slowly slid into obscurity while fellow dealers such as Leo Castelli and Sidney Janis capitalized on the stars he helped find Based on decades of research and on hundreds of interviews with Bellamy s artists friends colleagues and lovers Judith E Stein s Eye of the Sixties rescues the legacy of the elusive art dealer and tells the story of a counterculture that became the mainstream Ranging from the Beat orbits of Provincetown to white glove events like Guggenheim s opening gala from Norman Mailer s parties to historic downtown Happenings Richard Bellamy s story is a remarkable window on the art of the twentieth century and the making of a generation s aesthetic Judith E Stein s engrossing impressively researched consistently readable and often entertaining tale restores a crucial figure to his rightful place in the annals of postwar American art Lilly Wei Art in America By using Belamy s unlikely ascent as a prism Ms Stein brings to vibrant life a corner of the culture that was as outrageous as it was visually revolutionary Ann Landi The Wall Street Journal A man of shrewd and impeccable taste Bellamy s role in promoting the often misunderstood art of abstract expressionism pop and minimalism was profound This is an endearing and illuminating work of biography A shadowy figure of the 1960s art world is gloriously revealed Kirkus Reviews *Open.
