Multilateralism And Regionalism In The Post Uruguay Round Era What Role For The Eu:

Multilateralism and Regionalism in the Post-Uruguay Round Era Olga Memedovic, A. Kuyvenhoven, Willem T.M. Molle, 2012-12-06 The Post Uruguay Round era has seen a proliferation of regional preferential trade agreements PTAs as well as progressive multilateral trade liberalization initiatives This has stimulated theoretical discussion on whether the policy of pursuing PTAs will have a malign or a benign impact on multilateralism In the former case proliferation of PTAs may increase protection in global trade due to trade diversion effects thereby creating impediments to multilateral freeing of global trade In the latter case the expansion of PTA membership could ultimately lead to non discriminatory global free trade At the core of this discussion is the question of how to explain the preference for PTA membership While some economists view the expansion of PTA membership as exogenously determined participants of the Fourth Annual Workshop of the Network EU LDC Trade and Capital Relations also considered endogenous factors explaining increased PTA membership This book offers a closer look at the motives of policy makers in both developed and developing countries to still adhere to PTAs notwithstanding the theoretical superiority of multilateralism and addresses the question of how to bring order into the world trading system These issues are dealt with in 9 chapters by scholars from both the EU and LDCs Each paper is discussed in terms of its policy relevance by a policy maker as well as by an academic specialized in the field

Multilateralism, Regionalism and Bilateralism in Trade and Investment Philippe De Lombaerde, 2007-08-26 Global governance is a concern of not only global organisations but also of all individual states and of regional co operation agreements among sovereign states In 2001 the United Nations University has launched UNU CRIS a research and training programme on comparative regional integration to study the role of regional integration in global governance The present first volume of the World Report on Regional Integration is a timely product of the research undertaken at UNU CRIS This new series of World Reports will certainly contribute to the discussion on the interaction between regional and global governance And by bringing together insights from different parts of the UN system in particular the five UN regional economic commissions and UNCTAD this report will also contribute to a better understanding of the role of regions in the UN Hans van Ginkel Under Secretary General of the United Nations and Rector of UNU The World Report on Regional Integration brings together a well balanced mix of economic analysis facts and political perspectives on the topic of regional integration The most valuable and unique contribution of this volume is the enhanced clarity it brings to the complex picture of trade and investment integration the entanglement of which points to the need for more effective regional governance as a building block of multilateral governance in this area As the world's most dynamic trading region Asia and the Pacific is a key player in this process and the UNESCAP secretariat in its service to the region will continue to accord high priority to this policy objective Kim Hak Su Under Secretary General of the United Nations and Executive Secretary of UNESCAP

The Economics of European Integration Willem Molle, 2017-03-27 Through four previous editions The Economics of European Integration by Willem Molle has established itself as a preferred textbook for students of the economics of the EU as well as a reliable reference work for those with a professional interest in the European Union Carefully revised this fifth edition takes into account changes in course requirements new statistical information and recent policy developments It includes new material on the ongoing integration of the New Member States and the new forms of association with accession countries in Central and Eastern Europe the implementation of the Monetary Union and the performance of the euro the EU experience as a guide for the economic integration of other regions and for the improvement of world economic governance Written in a clear style and combining original insights with authoritative analysis this new edition will further enhance the book's reputation for providing the ideal introduction to the economics of the European Union Developing Countries And The Multilateral Trading System T. N. Srinivasan, 2019-03-13 This book provides a historical perspective of the Uruguay Round agreement and focuses on the interaction between the developed and developing countries on matters relating to the global trading system and its disciplines since the founding of General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade China and Southeast Asia Ho Khai Leong, Samuel C Y Ku, 2005 The relations between ASEAN and China occupy a unique and important position in the foreign relations of the Asia Pacific region This volume investigates the impacts of global changes and regional challenges confronting the contemporary developments of China ASEAN relations Global Economic Prospects 2005, 2004 This annual publication analyses the global and national dimensions of the investment climate for developing countries in terms of the policy and institutional environment This edition examines the growth of regional trade agreements which have risen eight fold in two decades with currently as much as 40 percent of global trade taking place among countries that have some form of reciprocal regional trade agreement Issues discussed include regional trading trends effects of regional agreements on trade creation trade facilitation and services investment intellectual property rights and labour mobility whether the proliferation of agreements poses risks for multilateral trading system and if so options for managing them The report finds that agreements leading to open regionalism that is deeper integration of trade as a result of low external tariffs increased services competition and efforts to reduce cross border and customs delays costs are effective as part of a larger trade strategy to promote growth Although regional agreements can prove beneficial to member countries they can have adverse effects on excluded countries and the lowering of border barriers around the world is crucial to minimising these effects The completion of the Doha Development Agenda by all WTO countries will reduce the risk of trade diversion associated with regional agreements and will decrease trade losses of countries excluded from agreements The WTO After Seattle Jeffrey J. Schott, 2000 The WTO after Seattle presented by the Institute for International Economics analyzes the problems and challenges facing the World Trade Organization after the failure of the Seattle trade ministerial in December 1999 The volume presents balanced perspectives on world trade problems by authors from the United States Europe Asia and Latin America with recommendations on what needs to be done in key areas to launch new talks

Mapping European Economic Integration A. Verdun, A. Tovas, 2013-11-14 By examining the various policy subfields of European economic integration such as agriculture trade banking economic governance and sustainability this book offers a comprehensive and wide ranging analysis of developments that have taken place in the past five years aimed at exploring the path of economic integration in Europe

Governing the World Economy Willem Molle, 2013-09-05 The major problems the world faces have increased since the turn of the millennium Recurrent storms on the financial markets have ravaged many countries poverty is still widespread notwithstanding decades of massive development aid the environment remains in acute jeopardy and the major world institutions have often reached an impasse in attempting to combat these difficulties The issues ask for rapid and consistent action by policy makers but the interests of international organizations such as the WTO World Bank and Kyoto protocol have become too diversified to come to multilateral agreements setting uniform rules and asking for strict compliance with these rules Alternative solutions are sought and development in the future is likely to be characterized by fuzzy and complex interactions between flexible groups of actors seeking agreements on the solutions for the most pressing new problems Progress will become rather unpredictable and will depend on time place and subject specific cases as well as convergence of interests This need not be only negative Flexible solutions have the advantage that they can be easily adapted in case the conditions change In this new book the follow up to his Global Economic Institutions Willem Molle maps out the unfolding of this process

Influence and Interests in the European Union Jenny Fairbrass, Alex Warleigh, 2003-09-02 Clearly discusses the impact and uses of interest representation in the development of the EU system Examines the complexities of representation at EU level a vital issue for potential lobbyists and interest groups Charts new trends and issues such as enlargement Europeanization and Central and Eastern Europe Contributions by acknowledged experts with a proven track record of research and publication in this field including seven current and past practitioners of EU politics with experience as lobbyists from either institutional NGO or corporate perspectives Places interest representation in its historical and theoretical context

The International Dimension of EU Competition Law and Policy Anestis S. Papadopoulos, 2010-10-28 Modern competition law was first employed by countries over one hundred years ago in order to address issues relating to restrictions of trade at the national level Recent international economic integration has weakened the distinction between the domestic and the international in several fields of economic activity and consequently the laws which regulate such activity competition law included Several attempts to address the paradox of adopting national competition rules to address international issues have been made at the international regional and lately bilateral levels This book discusses the international dimension of EU competition law and examines the position taken by the EU in four distinct categories of international agreements which are devoted to competition or include competition provisions In particular it analyses the EU s position with regard to bilateral enforcement cooperation agreements bilateral free trade agreements plurilateral regional agreements and the long negotiations for the adoption of a multilateral competition regime The European Union Ali M. El-Agraa, 2011-09-08 The European Union has established itself as a leading text that provides readers from all disciplines with a sound understanding of the economics and policies of the EU Its wealth of information detail and analysis has ensured that previous editions have been read by a generation of students researchers and policy makers It covers all major EU policy areas as well as theories of economic integration the theory of economic and monetary union EMU the measurement of the economic effects of European integration and the legal dimension in EU integration It also includes an explanation and analysis of all recent developments affecting the EU such as enlargement the ratification of the Nice Treaty and the Convention for the Future of Europe This edition has been thoroughly revised and updated and includes new resources to help students and teachers including summaries review questions suggestions for essay titles and further reading lists Global Economic Institutions Willem Molle, 2003-08-28 This book critically examines global economic institutions It presents an accessible fluid history of globalization and explains how global public goods should be defined and how global economic institutions work It also looks at the effect that major organizations including the WTO IMF and UNEP have on areas such as finance the environment

Protection for Exporters Andreas Dür, 2010 The liberalization of transatlantic trade relations since the Great Depression is one of the key developments in the global political economy of the last hundred years This period has seen the negotiated reduction of both tariffs and nontariff barriers among developed countries which allowed for the rapid expansion of trade flows a driving force of economic globalization In Protection for Exporters Andreas Dür provides a novel explanation for this phenomenon that stresses the role of societal interests in shaping trade politics He argues that exporters lobby more in reaction to losses of foreign market access than in pursuit of opportunities thus providing a rationale for periods of acceleration and slowdown in the pace of liberalization Dür also presents hypotheses about the form in which protection for exporters is provided preferential or nonpreferential and the balance of concessions that is exchanged in trade negotiations Protection for Exporters includes case studies of major developments in international trade relations such as the passage of the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act in the 1930s the creation of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade in the 1940s the Kennedy Round in the 1960s the debate over Fortress Europe in the 1980s and U S European competition over access to emerging markets in the early 2000s Dür's rigorous argument and systematic empirical analyses not only explain transatlantic trade relations but also allow for a better understanding of the dynamics of international economic relations
