Multinational Enterprises in Less Developed Countries Peter J. Buckley, Jeremy Clegg, 2016-07-27 This volume identifies and analyses the crucial issues in the impact of multinational enterprises MNEs on less developed countries LDCs Although the authors take a variety of wide stances on the important questions a uniformity of approach emerges The perspective is essentially that of economic analysis but it is enlivened by unorthodox concepts derived from related social science disciplines The chapters cover the process of development paying attention to entrepreneurship cultural factors and management styles and examine the impact on welfare and income distribution in the host country New Policy

Challenges For European Multinationals Rob van Tulder, Alain Verbeke, Liviu Voinea, 2012-11-21 Brings together a variety of scholarly contributions from a European perspective This book covers dimensions of MNE corporate strategy in the face of complex policy environments corporate strategic responses to national policy institutions pro active institution oriented strategies and dynamics of international business government relations Multinational Corporations and the

Emerging Network Economy in Asia and the Pacific Juan J. Palacios, 2008-03-25 Multinational Corporations and the Emerging Network Economy in Asia and the Pacific delves into the ongoing rise of a global economy anchored in a web of inter firm production networks and the role played by multinational corporations in the process It considers the strategies and business models corporations have adopted lately to face today s highly competitive global markets especially outsourcing and offshoring focusing on the modalities observed in Asia Pacific and the Pacific Rim at large Since their inception corporations have undergone a series of fundamental changes each has corresponded to a given era of industrial development and has given rise to a particular type of government policy response The book addresses these timely issues and other such as the transformation of global production networks into global innovation networks the link between corporate and national innovation strategies and movement up the global production value chain and the fragmentation of production and the resulting increase in component and sub assembly trade in the region It also takes up the emergence of multinational corporations from developing countries and the efforts aimed at forging basic rules of corporate social responsibility and developing sound institutions for building a working framework of corporate governance in the Pacific Written by some of the region s most eminent and influential economists and political scientists this volume will appeal to students and scholars working in the field of Asia Pacific studies as well as to businesspersons and policymakers taking decisions in the region Multinational Enterprises in India Nagesh Kumar, 2002-09-11 Multinational enterprises play a vital role in the economic activity of most developing countries In India MNE affiliates dominate whole sectors of industry such as plastics and pharmaceuticals characterised by a high degree of product differentiation complex technology and high skill intensity Such advantages combined with intangible assets centralised decision making and global outlook lead to a divergence of approach between MNEs and their local counterparts in host developing countries This book analyses the inter industry pattern of MNEs in India in the framework of the internationalisation theory also examining the comparative behaviour of MNE affiliates and LCEs in terms of conduct and performance The book goes further to explain the different performance of these two strategic groups by assessing profit and export
