Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1999 One Airman's War Joseph Clarence Bull,1997

Armageddon and OKRA Lewis Frederickson,2020-12-02 The dispatch of an Ottoman Army by Australian led Imperial air power in the Wadi Fara on 21 September 1918 occurred just five years after the advent of military aviation in Australia In 1914 the fledgling Australian air service operated the flimsy Bristol Boxkite four years later it was flying the far more advanced Bristol F2B Fighter This leap forward represented a profound progress in technology that has typified the technical development of aviation particularly in Australia ever since Ironically on 21 September 2014 96 years after the events of the Wadi Fara Australian squadrons were again deployed to the same part of the world where they would remain for more than three years on operations against extremist terrorism Armageddon and OKRA contrasts these events a century apart in the context of the development of Australian air power The book tracks the history where Australia has maintained a balanced air service compelling high technical logistics and engineering standards and effective training and command and control systems for more than 100 years These processes were as applicable a century ago as they are today By examining these operational events the author establishes the connection that access to the technology associated with air power is intrinsically linked to Australia s enduring foreign and defence policy more so that military power is a means to an end and never an end unto itself Long Flight Home Lainie Anderson,2019-05-15 The First World War is over and air mechanic Wally Shiers has promised to return home to his fiancée Helena Alford But Wally never reckoned on charismatic fighter pilot Ross Smith and an invitation to compete in the world s most audacious air race A 10 000 prize has been offered for the first airmen to fly from England to Australia Smith is banking on an open cockpit Vickers Vimy a biplane with a fuselage that looks ominously like a coffin And who can resist a hero Wally writes to Helena to say he won t be home for another year and the love of his life is left holding her hand stitched wedding dress Using war diaries letters and Churchill Fellowship research from along the race route Long Flight Home recreates one of the most important and largely forgotten chapters in world aviation history Lainie Anderson s ambitious and moving novel is told through her narrator Wally Shiers The tale spans the decades and crosses the globe and at his journey s end we re left peering down from an open cockpit on two beacons of truth There is no heroism without honour There is no legacy without love Over the Front ,2001 Cumulative Book Index ,1998 A world list of books in the English language The Royal Australian Air Force Alan Stephens,2001 This volume examines the military obligation of government during the first century of the Commonwealth of Australia During this time the defense has endured two world wars as well as a series of other military engagements Although the reputation of military has become a significant factor in the lives and views of Australians the topic rarely receives public interest This book explains the complexities of this essential strand of the Commonwealth Research Relating to Children ERIC Clearinghouse on Early Childhood Education,1952 Australian National Bibliography ,1996-12 Australian Books in
