Catalog of Copyright Entries ,1936 The Promised Land Mary Antin,1997 An extraordinary popular success when it was first published in 1912 a classic account of the Jewish American immigrant experience interweaves autobiography with history introspection and political commentary as the author recounts the process of uprooting transportation and assimilation in her new home and reveals the impact of a new culture on her family The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1968 The Oxford History of Hinduism: Hindu Practice Gavin Flood,2020-08-20 Traditions of asceticism yoga and devotion bhakti including dance and music developed in Hinduism over long periods of time Some of these practices notably those denoted by the term yoga are orientated towards salvation from the cycle of reincarnation and go back several thousand years These practices borne witness to in ancient texts called Upani ads as well as in other traditions notably early Buddhism and Jainism are the subject of this volume in the Oxford History of Hinduism Practices of meditation are also linked to asceticism tapas and its institutional articulation in renunciation sa ny sa There is a range of practices or disciplines from ascetic fasting to taking a vow vrata for a deity in return for a favour There are also devotional practices that might involve ritual making an offering to a deity and receiving a blessing dancing or visualization of the master guru The overall theme the history of religious practices might even be seen as being within a broader intellectual trajectory of cultural history In the substantial introduction by the editor this broad history is sketched paying particular attention to what we might call the medieval period post Gupta through to modernity when traditions had significantly developed in relation to each other The chapters in the book chart the history of Hindu practice paying particular attention to indigenous terms and recognizing indigenous distinctions such as between the ritual life of the householder and the renouncer seeking liberation between inner practices of and external practices of ritual and between those desirous of liberation mumuk u and those desirous of pleasure and worldly success bubhuk u This whole range of meditative and devotional practices that have developed in the history of Hinduism are represented in this book A Concise History Of American Painting And Sculpture Matthew Baigell,2018-02-23 This clear thorough and reliable survey of American painting and sculpture from colonial times to the present day covers all the major artists and their works outlines the social and cultural backgrounds of each period and includes 409 illustrations integrated with the text Although some determining factors in American art are considered Matthew Baigell views the rich and diverse achievements of American art as the result of the efforts and talents of a pluralistic society rather than as fitting into a particular mold This edition includes corrections and revisions to the text an updated bibliography and 13 new illustrations The Human Life Review ,1992 Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. Research Libraries,1979 Matters of Life and Death Salman Akhtar,2018-05-08 This book focuses on the intrapsychic vicissitudes of what it means to be truly alive and how death accompanies us at each step of our life s journey It shows that psychologically speaking death is always present in life and life in death Republics of Letters Peter Kirkpatrick, Professor Robert Dixon, 2018-08-30 Republics of Letters Literary Communities in Australia is the first book to explore the notion of literary community or literary sociability in relation to Australian literature A Catalog of Books Represented by Library of Congress Printed Cards Issued to July 31, 1942, 1942 Modern Chinese Theologies Chloë Starr, 2023-10-31 The majority of Christians in China over the course of the last century have worshipped not in missionary founded churches or in congregations affiliated with the contemporary Three Self Patriotic Movement or Chinese Catholic Patriotic Association but in independent and unregistered churches often labeled house churches From the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements within the mission church landscape of the early twentieth century to the Calvinist Reformed movement in the present day Protestant church the vibrant faith life and extraordinary church growth of this sector of Chinese Christianity offer a fascinating witness and lesson to the world church Yet despite the size of their congregations and the spread of their teachings the theologies of these independent and unregistered churches have drawn much less academic attention than those of mission church or state church theologians This volume presents a selection of new studies on house church theologians and theologies These begin in the early twentieth century with studies of the Spiritual Gifts movement in Shandong and the nature of Pentecostalism in Hong Kong and arrive in the present with essays on the changing role of women's leadership in the church given the spread of Reformed thought and the theological implications of Westminsterian Neo Calvinism in China The second section of the volume is devoted to the theological writings and lives of the two most prominent independent church figures of the twentieth century Wang Mingdao and Ni Tuosheng Watchman Nee These chapters include studies of spiritual theology of Ni's doctrine of humanity his views on salvation and his prison letters and of Wang Mingdao's life and moral thought his Confucian beliefs and his understanding of the relationship of Christians to the state The third section of the volume foregrounds church voices like the fundamentalist Samuel Lamb and the mediating figure Yang Shaotang and considers local developments in Roman Catholicism in light of Vatican reforms Gandhi as Disciple and Mentor Thomas Weber, 2004-12-02 Thomas Weber's book comprises a series of biographical reflections about people who influenced Gandhi and those who were in turn influenced by him Whilst previous literature tended to focus on Gandhi's political legacy Weber's book explores the spiritual social and philosophical resonances of these relationships and it is with these aspects of the Mahatma's life in mind that the author selects his central protagonists These include friends such as Henry Polak and Hermann Kallenbach who are not as well known as those usually cited but who left a deep impression nevertheless and motivated some of Gandhi's major life changes Conversely the work of luminaries such as E F Schumacher and Gene Sharp reveal the Mahatma's influence in arenas which are not traditionally associated with his thinking Weber's book offers intriguing insights into the life and thought of one of the most significant figures of the twentieth century Oneness of Life Bertha Scher, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1937 edition The Necessity of the Church for Salvation in Selected Theological Writings of the Past Century John J. King, 1960 Psychic Deadness Michael Eigen, 2018-12-07 Many people seek help because they feel dragged down by a sense of inner deadness that persists in an otherwise full and meaningful life These individuals somehow remain untouched by their own inner experiences a deadness persists that can cripple their entire life or part of it This book shows what is involved in enduring and working with psychic deadness in a day to day session by session basis John Petts and the Caseg Press Alison Smith, 2017-10-03 This title was first published in 2000 John Petts 1914 1991 is one of the outstanding wood engravers of the twentieth century His stunning prints featuring Welsh mountains and the people who live amongst them reflect his deep concern for the history of the land and are distinguished by his profound understanding of the physical and psychological properties of light Extensively illustrated John Petts and the Caseg Press spans the entire career of this reclusive artist and offers the first account of the private press he founded in Snowdonia in 1937 In 1935 John Petts and Brenda Chamberlain abandoned their studentships at the Royal Academy Schools London for a rundown farmhouse in the rugged terrain of Snowdonia They started the Caseg Press in 1937 in the hope that it might finance their freedom to work At first dedicated to saleable ephemera such as Christmas cards and bookplates the press later became involved in the broader Welsh cultural scene providing illustrations for the Welsh Review a monthly literary periodical In 1941 with the writer Alun Lewis the Caseg press produced a series of broadsheets designed to express continuity and identification with the life of rural Wales in the face of social change precipitated by the second world war John Petts and the Caseg Press is the first monograph on this artist It covers both his work for the Caseg Press and for other publishers such as the Golden Cockerel Press The volume offers a unique insight into an important chapter in the history of private presses in Britain and the development of neo romanticism in art and literature during the inter war period Huxford's Old Book Value Guide Bob Huxford, 1991 Nearly 25 000 titles with current values fill this hardbound book Much more than just a typical price guide the book is a directory with scores of actual buyers listed by the subject matter they are searching for as well as dealers offering the books at listed prices It will put you in touch with a person interested in buying or selling the books you have piled on your bookshelves The Very Best of Malcolm Muggeridge Malcolm Muggeridge, 2003 Excerpts drawn from books essays journalism broadcasts scripts diaries and letters 1926 1986 The Cambridge Dictionary of Christianity, Volume One Daniel Patte, 2021-10-06 The Cambridge Dictionary of Christianity is an authoritative reference guide that enables students their teachers Christian clergy and general readers alike to reflect critically upon all aspects of Christianity from its origins to the present day Written by a team of 828 scholars and practitioners from around the world the volume reflects the plurality of Christianity throughout its history Key features of The Cambridge Dictionary of Christianity Provides a survey of the history of Christianity in the world on each continent and in each nation Offers a presentation of the Christian beliefs and practices of all major Christian traditions Highlights the different understandings of Christian beliefs and practices in different historical cultural religious
