CONTRIBUTORS' BULLETIN -- APRIL 1964

Dear Friends:

Getting ready for a vacation is quite an arduous undertaking. Even though I will be gone for only one month, there are countless details that require attention. Barring acts of Providence, I will leave on May 13th, via Japan Airlines, and will spend a few days in Tokyo before setting up field headquarters at Kyoto. It would be quite impossible to rest without a few interesting projects, and we have already established contact with several experts in the fields of religion, philosophy, and art. When I return, it is my plan to publish some kind of a report so that I can share my findings with our friends here. The program includes a photographic record of unusual places and objects.

This year the Association for Research and Enlightenment, the group perpetuating the work of Edgar Cayce, is holding one of the meetings of its annual Los Angeles Conference at our headquarters. On this occasion -- Thursday, April 23 -- I will be the speaker of the evening, taking the general theme of the Conference, "Venture Inward." Through the years, I have spoken at most of the Los Angeles Conferences of the A.R.E., and it is always a pleasure to cooperate with this fine group.

On February 20th, the monthly meeting of the Pacificulture Foundation was held in our library, with the Advisory Board and some twenty-five members of the organization present as guests of our Society. The theme of the meeting was Buddhism in art, and we showed the visiting group artifacts, books rarely seen, Japanese scrolls, beautiful sutras and temple souvenirs, and other treasures. The evening was described as "richly rewarding" by the guests, and one of our friends has given the following gracious description of the atmosphere that prevailed on this occasion: "Quiet spread over the whole audience as Mr. Hall unrolled the great scroll paintings of the terrestrial universe and the celestial universe. Such a stupendous display of talent, technique, labor, and love is almost beyond the comprehension of the modern mind. Mr. Hall amazed his listeners with his profound knowledge of these hundred works of art, and his power of recall when questions were asked regarding details of the work or dates of various happenings. Quietly, as these treasures were relinquished by the guests, the Library Committee removed them from the tables, and the evening was then given over to the P.R.S. Hospitality Committee, who served refreshments in the Reading Room, where Japanese carvings of the great Buddha and of Rahula, his son, silently presided over all."

I would like to express my personal appreciation to the members of the Library Committee for their efficient help, and to the Hospitality Committee members for providing the delicious refreshments and beautiful decorations, which added much to the enjoyment of all.

The accompanying photograph is an unusually fine example of one of the temple souvenirs, or ofuda, shown at the meeting. It represents the deity Kannon, with
