Stepien, 2020-11-01 Can literature reveal reality Is philosophical truth a literary artifice How does the way we think affect what we can know Buddhism has been grappling with these questions for centuries and this book attempts to answer them by exploring the relationship between literature and philosophy across the classical and contemporary Buddhist worlds of India Tibet China Japan Korea and North America Written by leading scholars the book examines literary texts composed over two millennia ranging in form from lyric verse narrative poetry panegyric hymn and koan to novel hagiography secret autobiography autofiction treatise and sutra all in sustained conversation with topics in metaphysics ethics aesthetics and the philosophies of mind language literature and religion Interdisciplinary and cross cultural this book deliberately works across and against the boundaries separating three mainstays of humanistic pursuit literature philosophy and religion by focusing on the multiple relationships at play between content and form in works drawn from a truly diverse range of philosophical schools literary genres religious cultures and historical eras Overall the book calls into question the very ways in which we do philosophy study literature and think about religious texts It shows that Buddhist thought provides sophisticated responses to some of the perennial problems regarding how we find create and apply meaning on the page in the mind and throughout our lives Philosophy of Literature Christopher New, 1999 Lucid well organised and free of jargon Philosophy of Literature An Introduction offers fresh approaches to traditional issues and raises new questions about the nature of philosophical problems which literature gives rise to A Companion to the Philosophy of Literature Garry L. Love's Knowledge Martha C. Nussbaum, 1992-04-02 This volume brings together Nussbaum's published papers on the relationship between literature and philosophy especially moral philosophy The papers many of them previously inaccessible to non specialist readers deal with such fundamental issues as the relationship between style and content in the exploration of ethical issues the nature of ethical attention and ethical knowledge and their relationship to written forms and styles and the role of the emotions in deliberation and self knowledge Nussbaum investigates and defends a conception of ethical understanding which involves emotional as well as intellectual activity and which gives a certain type of priority to the perception of particular people and situations rather than to abstract rules She argues that this ethical conception cannot be completely and appropriately stated without turning to forms of writing usually considered literary rather than philosophical It is consequently necessary to broaden our conception of moral philosophy in order to include these forms Featuring two new essays and revised versions of several previously published essays this collection attempts to articulate the relationship within such a broader ethical inquiry between literary and more abstractly theoretical elements

Romanticism, Philosophy, and Literature Michael N. Forster, Lina Steiner, 2020-05-26 This book offers a broad re evaluation of the key ideas developed by the German Romantics concerning philosophy and literature It focuses not only on their own work but also on that of their fellow travelers such as Holderlin and their contemporary opponents such as Hegel as well as on various reactions to and transpositions of their ideas in later authors including Coleridge Byron Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Dostoevsky

The Philosophy of Literature Donald Phillip Verene, 2018-09-12 The Philosophy of Literature Four Studies puts forth the question of the extent to which philosophers must go to school with the poets It begins with a new interpretation of the famous Platonic quarrel with the poetic wisdom of Homer It brings this question forward through the humanism of thinkers of the Italian Renaissance and the German Idealism of Hegel It then treats the relation of philosophy and literature in four ways by considering philosophy as literature philosophy of literature philosophy in literature and philosophy and literature In regard to the first of these it discusses Jorge Luis Borges's The Immortal to the second James Joyce's Finnegans Wake to the third Carl Sandburg's epic prose poem The People Yes and to the fourth Sebastian Brant's Ship of Fools This work demonstrates that in an area of thought often dominated by fashionable doctrines of literary interpretation the great works of literature and philosophy remain as permanent residents of our thought and imagination
