Philosophy 1 A Guide Through The Subject:

Philosophy 1 A. C. Grayling, 1998 This is the first part of a two volume introduction to philosophy intended to orientate assist and stimulate the reader at every stage in the study of the subject      Philosophy A. C. Grayling, 1995 This comprehensive new collection is designed as a complete introduction to philosophy for students and general readers Consisting of eleven extended essays specially commissioned for this volume from leading philosophers the book surveys all of the major areas of philosophy and offers an accessible but sophisticated guide to the main debates An extended introduction provides general context and explains how the different subjects are related The first part of the book deals with the foundations of philosophical inquiry epistemology philosophical logic methodology metaphysics and the philosophy of mind The second part offers historical chapters two on ancient philosophy and two on modern philosophy Finally two chapters deal with questions of value ethics and aesthetics Each chapter has a full bibliography The contributors include Bernard Williams Roger Scruton Martin Davies David Wiggins Christopher Janaway David Papineau and Mark Sainsbury Designed to be as useful to the third year student as to the beginner this exciting new text will give each reader a unique sense of involvement in philosophy as it is practiced today      Handbook for the Historiography of Science Mauro L. Condé, Marlon Salomon, 2023-09-30 This book aims to perform a critical and broad assessment of the historiography of science produced from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first century It presents its main authors concepts ideas conceptions and schools It also analyzes the historical circumstances of the rise of the discipline history of science and the relations of the historiography of science with related areas These chapters do not understand the historiography of science as a mere description or record of the history of science Instead they understand the historiography of science from the epistemological criteria and choices that guided the writing of the history of science in its different contexts In other words more than describing the record of the various possibilities of historiographical approaches to science the chapters carry out an epistemological reflection to assess the bases possibilities scope and limits of different historiographical conceptions authors and traditions that have established the writing of the history of science This book can be conceived as a reference work not only for professional historians and philosophers but also for academics from different backgrounds who are initiating themselves in the universe of history and philosophy of science be they scientists from different fields or young researchers from different backgrounds who want to start studying the history and philosophy of science      Leadership Meta-Competencies Dimitris Bourantas, Vasia Agapitou, 2016-04-22 This book doesn't offer overrated success stories which in most cases cannot be imitated It contains no check lists or recipes for success and it presents no theoretically based models The meta competencies discussed in this refreshing book are timeless virtues of which effective leaders seem to possess but which are rarely if ever included in lists of competencies in the vast business leadership literature They include Existential intelligence distinct from the much discussed emotional intelligence is about the ability to pose questions and reflect on fundamental issues in ways that develop a mature ability to interpret the world and better understand other people Phronesis is the ability to exercise sound judgement based on skilful application of moral and political rationality Solitude is a voluntary state achieved when an individual has the ability to momentarily withdraw and be free of external pressures and demands in order to concentrate on desired mental cognitive activities Trust building is more often discussed in leadership literature As a leadership competence it is about the ability to be credible show trust in and respect for other people and inspire trust For the curious business practitioner business student or business educator wishing to consider aspects of leadership competence that have to some extent been hidden or forgotten this book introduces the notion of meta competences and deals in detail with them A Guide to Reading in Social Ethics and Allied Subjects Harvard University,1910 A Guide to Contemporary Hermeneutics Donald K. McKim,1999-05-25 Acknowledging that hermeneutics has become an increasingly important major focus in theological study Donald McKim s A Guide to Contemporary Hermeneutics presents a series of essays by various writers assessing current hermeneutical approaches and methods of biblical hermeneutics from their own personal experience Guide to Reference Books Isadore Gilbert Mudge,Doris Mary Reed,Constance M..

Winchell,1929 New Guide to Reference Books Isadore Gilbert Mudge,American Library Association,1923 Guide to Evidence-based Physical Therapy Practice Dianne V. Jewell,2008 Finally a text designed specifically for physical therapists to facilitate evidence based practice in both the classroom and in the clinic Guide to Evidence Based Physical Therapy Practice provides readers with the information and tools needed to appreciate the philosophy history and value of evidence based practice understand what constitutes evidence search efficiently for applicable evidence in the literature evaluate the findings in the literature and integrate the evidence with clinical judgement and individual patient preferences and values This unique handbook combines the best elements of multiple texts into a single accessible guide Divided into four sections that break down the research process this user friendly text also includes key terms learning objectives exercises diagrams worksheets and useful appendices This text is perfect for both physical therapists and students Guide to the study and use of reference books Alice Bertha Kroeger,1917 Subject Guide to Books ,1929 Contents v 1
