Communism, Political Power and Personal Freedom in Marx Levy del Aguila Marchena,2021-11-23 This book investigates communism in Marx's writings incorporating a consideration of communist politics The author outlines the arguments by which it is possible to sustain from Marx the idea that human emancipation against capital also means the elimination of the State the public and the political dimension of praxis He also posits that the concrete tasks of the management of the common in a communist society require political mediations that allow us to confront the difference inherent to the personality of freely associated producers as well as the ontological finitude from which no technical power can evade Finally assuming Marx as a starting point whose work remains an inescapable source for thinking communism the book proposes a research agenda from Marx and beyond to continue in this imperative task Levy del Aguila Marchena is Senior Professor and Chair of the Department of Management Sciences at the Pontificia Universidad Catolica del Perù. He has published extensively on Marx political philosophy and applied ethics. Autoethnographies in Psychology and Mental Health Alec Grant, Jerome Carson, 2024-09-30 This autoethnographic volume gathers a multiplicity of different voices in autoethnographic research from across psychology and mental health disciplines to address topics ranging from selfhood trauma emotional understanding clinical psychology and the experience of grief Edited by two leading figures this volume broadens the concept of psychology beyond its conventional mainstream academic boundaries and challenges pre conceived and received notions of what constitutes psychology and mental health This book collects new autoethnographic writers in psychology and mental health from across as diverse a range of disciplines and in doing so makes a strong case for the legitimacy of subjectivity emotionality and lived experience as epistemic and pedagogic resources The collection also troubles the related concept of mental health In contemporary times this is either biomedically over colonised welcomed by some but resisted by others often regarded by lay and professional people alike in terms of an ordered or disordered binary comforting for some but associated with stigma and othering for others or at worst is reduced to a set of hackneyed memes the stuff of Breakfast television well intentioned and undoubtedly reassuring and helpful for some but patronising and naïve for others Overall the volume promotes the subjective and lived experiential voices of its contributors the hallmark of autoethnographic writing Autoethnographies in Psychology and Mental Health will be of interest to psychology and mental health students and professionals with an interest in qualitative inquiry as it intersects with autoethnography and mental health
