Philosophy Of The Visual Arts:

The Philosophy of the Visual Arts Philip Alperson, Professor of Philosophy Philip A Alperson, 1992 Most instructors who teach introductory courses in aesthetics or the philosophy of arts use the visual arts as their implicit reference for art in general yet until now there has been no aesthetics anthology specifically orientated to the visual arts This text stresses conceptual and theoretical issues first examining the very notion of the visual arts and then investigating philosophical questions raised by various forms from painting the paradigmatic form to sculpture photography film dance kitsch and other forms on the borders of the visual arts The selections represent both classical and contemporary views and include sections by artists art historians and critics as well as philosophers A singularly important text for courses in the philosophy of arts or aesthetics this anthology is designed to enrich the philosophical and critical examination of our beliefs about the visual arts

Philosophy and the Visual Arts, 1990      Philosophy and the Visual Arts Andrew Harrison, 2012-12-06 This volume consists of papers given to the Royal Institute of Philosophy Conference on Philosophy and the Visual Arts Seeing and Abstracting given at the University of Bristol in September 1985 The contributors here come about equally from the disciplines of Philosophy and Art History and for that reason the Conference was hosted jointly by the Bristol University Departments of Philosophy and History of Art Other conferences sponsored by the Royal Institute of Philosophy have been concerned with links between Philosophy and related disciplines but here with the generous support of South West Arts and with the enthusiastic co operation of the staff of the Arnolfini Gallery in Bristol we were able to attempt even more in the way of bridge building not only were we able to hold some of our meetings in as possible to the general the Gallery thus making them as accessible public but we were also privileged in having our discussions supported by two exhibitions of contemporary painting that together presented contrasting aspects of the abstracting enterprise One featuring works by Ian McKeever and drawings and painting by Frank Auerbach some of which are discussed and illustrated in the present volume was about the painterly exploration of abstracting from images in nature and in painting itself The other curated by Waldemar Januszczak while showing some figurative works was concerned with the pure power of colour perceived abstractly in its own right      Philosophy and the Visual Arts Andrew Harrison, 1987-11-30      Philosophy & the Visual Arts Andrew Benjamin, JD, PhD, 1989-01-15      The Visual Arts in Post-Historical Perspective Arthur C. Danto, 1998-11-03 This essays explore how conceptions of art and resulting historical narratives differ according to culture      Philosophy & the Visual Arts Andrew E. Benjamin, 1989-01-15      The Classification of Visual Art Tiffany Sutton, 2000-03-28 Sutton's work explores what it is that bestows the designation art on an artwork      Phenomenology of the Visual Arts (even the frame) Paul Crowther, 2009-09-16 The book is a comprehensive phenomenological study of meanings that are unique to the major visual art forms      Studies in Philosophical Realism in Art, Design and Education Neil C. M. Brown, 2016-09-13 This book fills a gap in the literature of 21st century international visual arts education by providing a structured approach to understanding the benefits of Philosophical Realism in art education an approach that has received little international attention until now The framework as presented provides a powerful interface between research and practical reconceptualisations of critical issues and practice in the domains of art design and education that involve implications for curriculum in visual arts teaching and learning cognitive development and creativity The book extends understanding of Philosophical Realism in its practical application to teaching practice in visual arts in the way it relates to the fields of art design and education Researchers teacher educators and specialist art teachers are informed about how Philosophical Realism provides insights into art design and education These insights vary from clearer knowledge about art to the examination of beliefs and assumptions about the art object Readers learn how cognitive reflection and social and practical reasoning in the classroom help cultivate students artistic performances and understand how constraints function in students reasoning at different ages stages of education

Henri Bergson and Visual Culture Paul Atkinson, 2020 What does it mean to see time in the visual arts and how does art reveal the nature of time Paul Atkinson investigates these questions through the work of the French philosopher Henri Bergson whose theory of time as duration made him one of the most prominent thinkers of the fin de siècle Although Bergson never enunciated an aesthetic theory and did not explicitly write on the visual arts his philosophy gestures towards a play of sensual differences that is central to aesthetics This book rethinks Bergson's philosophy in terms of aesthetics and provides a fascinating and original account of how Bergsonian ideas aid in understanding time and dynamism in the visual arts From an examination of Bergson's influence on the visual arts to a reconsideration of the relationship between aesthetics and metaphysics Henri Bergson and Visual Culture explores what it means to reconceptualise the visual arts in terms of duration Atkinson revisits four key themes in Bergson's work duration time and the continuous gesture the ramification of life and durational difference and reveals Bergsonian aesthetics of duration through the application of these themes to a number of 19th and 20th century artworks This book introduces readers and art lovers to the work of Bergson and contributes to Bergsonian scholarship as well as presenting a new of understanding the relationship between art and time

The Expression of Emotion in the Visual Arts: A Philosophical Inquiry Benjamin R. Tilghman, 1970-07 The philosophy of art aesthetics is here understood to be something distinct from both art appreciation and art criticism The philosophy of art is nevertheless dependent upon the existence of appreciation and criticism because it is out of reflection upon these that the uniquely philosophical problems of art arise problems that reflect puzzlement about what is involved in understanding enjoying describing and evaluating works of art Hence the philosophy of art must presuppose at least some measure of understanding and appreciation of particular works of art and if such understanding and appreciation are lacking the philosopher is in no position to supply them It can not be a philosophical task to undertake a Defense of Poesie against either the philistine or the tyrant The philosopher is not the one to convince us that art is a Good Thing that paintings are worth looking at poems worth reading and music worth listening to if for no other reason than that philosophical theory and argument are no substitute for taste and sensibility My position here is the now unexceptional one that philosophical problems are essentially conceptual problems and while the philosopher of art cannot produce aesthetic sensibility and appreciation where these do not exist he can give us understanding of the concepts relevant to artistic appreciation and thereby help us to see our way through the conceptual confusions that have generated the philosophical puzzles surrounding art its appreciation and criticism

Deleuze and the Schizoanalysis of Visual Art Ian Buchanan, Lorna Collins, 2014-09-25 The concept of schizoanalysis is Deleuze and Guattari's fusion of psychoanalytic inspired theories of the self the libido and desire with Marx inspired theories of the economy history and society Schizoanalysis holds that art's function is both political and aesthetic it changes perception If one cannot change perception then one cannot change anything politically This is why Deleuze and Guattari always insist that artists operate at the level of the real not the imaginary or the symbolic Ultimately they argue there is no necessary distinction to be made between aesthetics and politics They are simply two sides of the same coin both concerned with the formation and transformation of social and cultural norms Deleuze and the Schizoanalysis of Visual Art explores how every artist good or bad contributes to the structure and nature of society because their work either reinforces social norms or challenges them From this point of view we are all artists we all have the potential to exercise what might be called a aesthetico political function and change the world around us or conversely we can not only let the status quo endure but fight to preserve it as though it were freedom itself Edited by one of the world's leading scholars in Deleuze Studies and an accomplished artist curator and critic this impressive collection of writings by both academics and practicing artists is an exciting imaginative tool for a upper level students and academics researching and studying visual arts critical theory continental philosophy and media

The Artist-Philosopher and New Philosophy George Smith, 2018-07-11 In The Artist-Philosopher and New Philosophy Smith argues that Western Metaphysics has indeed come to what Heidegger describes as an end That is hardly to say philosophy as such is over or soon to disappear rather its purpose as a medium of cultural change and as a generator of history has run its course He thus calls for a New Philosophy conceptualized by the artist philosopher who makes or poeticizes New Philosophy spanning literary and theoretical discourses and operating across art in all its forms and across culture in all its locations To this end Smith proposes the establishment of schools and social networks that advance the training and development of artist philosophers as well as global digital networks that are themselves designed toward this ever becoming community

From Idolatry to Advertising: Visual Art and Contemporary Culture Susan G. Josephson, 2016-09-16 This book records the conclusions that I came to as I thought through the cultural evolution of each of the different sorts of visual art and tried to piece together their story from the perspective of philosophy Chapter 1 discusses how culture shapes art to be what it is from the outside like a mold shapes clay and the great power of art to affect the way we think and to promote cultural change Chapter 2 discusses the evolution of Fine Art from its birth in the Renaissance to its present old age and decline Chapter 3 discusses the institutional structures that make art for popular taste its own sort of art and the culture wars over censorship and whether public art should be Fine Art or art for popular taste Chapters 4 and 5 discuss the life histories of design and advertising This book is also the story of how art interacts with technology In my work in Artificial Intelligence research I saw that there is an intimate connection between the evolution of design in engineering and design in art In both sorts of design there is a growing understanding of how to make and use levels of packaging and how to approach things from the functional perspective of the artifact This is discussed in Chapter 4 My talk in Chapter 1 of how art styles affect us also reflects this functional approach That is instead of approaching art styles in the traditional ways I have approached them in terms of the tasks of vision and how art delivers information packaged to be understood at different levels of visual processing Using this functional approach I stress what art does for us rather than what art is I also tried to address the evolution of culture given the mass media and mass market and the role of art in the growing marriage between television and computer As I thought about computers in my work in Artificial Intelligence I saw that a new sort of idolatry was arising where the computers were being asked to be infallible experts giving us advice on everything from taxes to marriage problems and our health I saw that computers were being used not just as art tools and artists but also as art objects like the ancient idols This started me thinking about how other ancient functions of religion were being filled by advertising and the media

The Value of Drawing Instruction in the Visual Arts and Across Curricula Seymour Simmons III, 2021-03-29 By applying philosophical and historical perspectives to drawing instruction this volume demonstrates how diverse teaching methods contribute to cognitive and holistic development applicable within and beyond the visual arts Offering a new perspective on the art and science of drawing this text reveals the often unrecognized benefits that drawing can have on the human mind and thus argues for the importance of drawing instruction despite and even due to contemporary digitalization Given the predominance of visual information and digital media visual thinking in and through drawing may be an essential skill for the future As such the book counters recent declines in drawing instruction to propose five Paradigms for teaching drawing as design as seeing as experience and experiment as expression and as a visual language with exemplary curricula for pre K12 art and general education pre professional programs across the visual arts and continuing education With the aid of instructional examples this volume dispels the misconception of drawing as a talent reserved for the artistically gifted and posits it as a teachable skill that can be learned by all This text will be of primary interest to researchers scholars and doctoral students with interests in drawing theory and practice cognition in the arts positive psychology creativity theory as well as the philosophy and history of arts education Aligning with contemporary trends such as Design Thinking STEAM and Graphicacy the text will also have appeal to visual arts educators at all levels and other educators involved in arts integration

Global Theories of the Arts and Aesthetics Susan L. Feagin, 2007 The Science and Art of Simulation Michael M. Resch, Nico Formánek, Ammu Joshy, Andreas Kaminski, 2024-12-18 Trust is a central pillar of the scientific enterprise Much work in the philosophy of science can be seen as coping with the problem of establishing trust in a certain theory a certain model or even science as a whole However trust in science is threatened by various developments With the advent of more complex models and the increasing usage of computer methods such as machine learning and computer simulation it seems increasingly challenging to establish trust in science How and on what basis can an appropriate trust in science be built We are interested in how trust is established in such cases of increasing complexity of models and communication and what could be appropriate measures to alleviate doubt

Art History Versus Aesthetics James Elkins, 2012-11-12 In this unprecedented collection over twenty of the world's most prominent thinkers on the subject including Arthur Danto Stephen Melville Wendy Steiner Alexander Nehamas and Jay Bernstein ponder the disconnect between these two disciplines The volume has a radically innovative structure it begins with introductions and centres on an animated conversation among ten historians and aestheticians That conversation was then sent to twenty scholars for commentary and their responses are very diverse some are informal letters and others full essays with footnotes Some think they have the answer in hand and others raise yet more questions The volume ends with two synoptic essays one by a prominent aesthetician and the other by a literary critic This stimulating inaugural volume in the Routledge The Art Seminar series presents not one but many answers to the question Does philosophy have anything to say to art history

The Political Power of Visual Art Daniel Herwitz, 2021-04-08 Visual art has a ubiquitous political cast today But which politics Daniel Herwitz seeks clarity on the various things meant by politics and how we can evaluate their presumptions or aspirations in contemporary art Drawing on the work of William Kentridge drenched in violence race and power and the artworld immolations of Banksy Herwitz's examples range from the NEA 4 and the question of offense as dissent to the community driven work of George Gittoes the identity politics of contemporary American art and for contrast with the power of visual media literature written in dialogue with truth commissions He is interested in understanding art practices today in the light of two opposing inheritances the avant gardes and their politicization of the experimental art object and 18th century aesthetics preaching the autonomy of the art object which he interprets as the cultural compliment to modern liberalism His historically informed approach reveals how crucial this pair of legacies is to reading the tensions in voice and character of art today Driven by questions about the capacity of the visual medium to speak politically or acquire political agency this book is for anyone working in aesthetics or the art world concerned with the fate of cultural politics in a world spinning out of control yet within reach of emancipation
