Dickens the Novelist F. R. Leavis, 2012-08-02 In The Great Tradition published in 1948 F R Leavis seemed to rate the work of Charles Dickens with the exception of Hard Times as lacking the seriousness and formal control of the true masters of English fiction By 1970 when Dickens the Novelist was published on the first centenary of the writer's death Leavis and his lifelong collaborator Q D Leavis had changed their minds Our purpose they wrote is to enforce as unanswerably as possible the conviction that Dickens was one of the greatest of creative writers In seven typically robust and uncompromising chapters the Leavises grapple with the evaluation of a writer who was then still open to dismissal as a mere entertainer a caricaturist not worthy of discussion in the same breath as Henry James Q D Leavis shows for example how deeply influential David Copperfield was on the work of Tolstoy and explores the symbolic richness of the nightmare world of Bleak House F R Leavis reprints his famous essay on Hard Times with its moral critique of utilitarianism and reveals the imaginative influence of Blake on Little Dorrit Q D Leavis contributes a pathbreaking chapter on the importance of Dickens's illustrators to the effect of his work London Plaques Derek Sumeray, John Sheppard, 2011-08-20 London's buildings are dotted with commemorative plaques Many are the famous blue plaques indicating where a famous person was born lived stayed or if a significant event took place there or an earlier use of the site This book is a comprehensive gazetteer of all of London's plaques Using Derek Sumeray s classic book as a basis this thoroughly revised new edition arranges plaques alphabetically by area providing a text that is linked to London s geography and therefore of greater use to a resident or visitor wanting to explore the famous people and events commemorated in that area The Dickensian Bertram Waldrom Matz,1915

City Images Mary Ann Caws,2013-11-26 First Published in 1991 Knowing any real city and still more so knowing what it is to know a city may be as much about passive as about active experience What we read in the field that field of the city in all its bizarre mixture of culture and nature is bound to determine to some non fictional extent what we know of it what we imagine it could be what we fear it may be or become These essays are meant to be albeit in their critical mode the recountings of knowing something through something else they are the projected imagination through reading of the reading by the self and or others a wide range of each of a city or cities as such of what city knowing or city thinking is The city as stage market and labyrinth variously trafficked and aestheticized dreamt and politicized as passionately written by authors from Cicero to Kazin from Wordsworth Dickens Whitman and Woolf to Williams Ashbery and Bonnefoy is the place the essays play themselves out through architecture and metaphor
