They also spend time with Weezy's older sister Jenna who resents the fact that her once poor, as a church mouse baby sister is now a woman of means and in the course of time a long kept family secret is finally revealed. A wickedly plotted new thriller in which a group of friends play a deadly game that unwraps a motive for murder from Alex Pavesi, the author of The Eighth Detective. Anatol invites five of his oldest friends to his family home in the Wiltshire countryside to celebrate his thirtieth birthday. At his request they play a game of his invention called Motive Method Death. The rules are simple. Everyone chooses two players at random then writes a short story in which one kills the other. Points are awarded for making the murders feel real. Of course it's only natural for each friend to use what they know. Secrets. Grudges. Affairs. But once they've put it in a story each secret is out. It's not long before the game reawakens old resentments and brings private matters into the light of day. With each fictional crime someone new gets a very real motive.
