The Prodigal Empire James F. Morgan, 2009 The Lost Colonies of Ancient America Frank Joseph, 2013-10-21 Was America truly unknown to the outside world until Christopher Columbus discovered it in 1492 Could a people gifted enough to raise the Great Pyramid more than 4 000 years ago have lacked the skills necessary to build a ship capable of crossing the Atlantic Did the Phoenicians who circumnavigated the African continent in 600 bc never consider sailing farther Were the Vikings the most fearless warriors and seafarers of all time terrified at the prospect of a transoceanic voyage If so how are we to account for an Egyptian temple accidentally unearthed by Tennessee Valley Authority workers in 1935 What is a beautifully crafted metal plate with the image of a Phoenician woman doing in the Utah desert And who can explain the discovery of Viking houses and wharves excavated outside of Boston These enigmas are but a tiny fraction of the abundant physical proof for Old World visitors to our continent hundreds and thousands of years ago In addition Sumerians Minoans Romans Celts ancient Hebrews Indonesians Africans Chinese Japanese Welsh Irish and the Knights Templar all made their indelible if neglected mark on our land

Capitalising on Change in a Globalising World Wolfgang Michalski,2011-12-14 These are powerful times Fundamental change is around the corner but the concrete manifestations are unpredictable Past trends will less than ever be a reliable orientation for desirable action Adopting familiar game plans reinforcing standard procedures and implementing strategies which were successful in the good old days of the second half of the 20th century are no longer a guarantee for an adequate solution And even if they seem to alleviate a problem in the short term they may lay the roots for failure in the longer term What is needed in such a situation is the enhancement of resilience to facilitate the absorption of the unexpected and the unforeseeable strengthening of the capacity to adjust innovatively and flexibly to rapidly changing political economic social and technological circumstances and in the political arena to stretch what interest groups and the public believe is socially acceptable and thus politically feasible This is the lesson to be learned from the 2 000 year long history of globalisation and the story of one city Hamburg which for 1 000 years has successfully remained on the side of the winners

The Roman Empire James F Morgan,2012-12-28 The Western Roman Empire collapsed more than 1500 years ago while the Eastern Roman Empire survived for almost a thousand more years When the west collapsed no one questioned why It was simply the way things were Than about 500 years ago scholars begin to question just why the west should fail and the east survive A long list of reasons have been presented but they are seen as contributors to the fall and were not the primary cause The Roman Empire was a military nation that was built by the sword She was also a nation with many internal conflicts There is a tendency to examine Roman history from the sword the turmoil and the many internal conflicts but Rome was also an agricultural nation built by the plow and the sickle When we take a close look at just how agriculture was managed or in many cases mismanaged it becomes all too obvious why the Western Roman Empire collapsed so quickly and why the Eastern Roman Empire endured for a millennium
