Phoenix Over The Galilee:

Phoenix Over the Galilee, 1969      Phoenix Over the Galilee Ka-tzetnik 135633, 1977      Phoenix Over the Galilee Yehiel Denur, 1969      Phoenix Over the Galilee Ka-Tzetnik, 1977-05      Phoenix Over the Galilee [by] Ka-tzetnik 135633 Ka-tzetnik 135633, 1969      The Shriek of Silence David Patterson, 2021-12-14

In the Holocaust novel silence is always a character and the word is always its subject matter So writes David Patterson in this profound and original study of more than thirty important writers Contrary to existing views he argues the Holocaust novel is not an attempt to depict an unimaginable reality or an ineffable horror It is rather an endeavor to fetch the word from silence and restore it to meaning to resurrect the human soul to regenerate the relation between the self and God the self and other the self and itself This book is less a critical study in the usual sense than an impassioned meditation on the deeper sources of the Holocaust novel Among the authors examined are Elie Wiesel Arnost Lustig Aharon Appelfeld Katzetnik 135633 Primo Levi Yehuda Amichai Piotr Rawicz A Anatoli Saul Bellow I B Singer Anna Langfus Rachmil Bryks and Ilse Aichinger The Shriek of Silence is a first in several respects the first to examine the Holocaust novels in their original languages the first to articulate a theoretical basis for its approach and the first phenomenological investigation one that attempts to penetrate the process of creation for these novelists Organized along conceptual lines the book examines the word in exile the themes of death of the father and the child transformations of the self and the implications of the reader Its philosophical foundations are Rosenzweig Buber Neher and Levinas Its critical approach is shaped by Bakhtin The novelists of the Holocaust in witnessing through their words regain their voices and in so doing are reborn By probing the depths of their struggle Patterson s study draws us too toward a higher understanding perhaps even our own rebirth      Primo Levi and Ka-Tzetnik Yochai Ataria, 2021-07-14

This book is about Primo Levi and Ka Tzetnik both Auschwitz survivors and central figures in the shaping of Holocaust memory who dedicated their lives to bearing witness and writing about the concentration camps seeking in particular to give voice to those who did not return The two writers are generally treated as complete opposites Levi level headed and self aware Ka Tzetnik caught up in repeating the traumatic past In this book I show how fundamentally mistaken this approach is and how the similarity between them is in fact far greater than it may seem While Levi draws the map Ka Tzetnik reveals the territory itself and taken together they offer a better understanding of the human experience of the camps This book explores their writing and their lives up to their deaths Ka Tzetnik of old age and Levi by his own hand offering new explanations of Levi s suicide little understood to this day      Holocaust Education and the Semiotics of Othering in Israeli Schoolbooks Nurit Elhanan-Peled, 2023-09-11

The Zionist pedagogical narrative reproduced in schoolbooks views the migration of Jews to Israel as the felicitous conclusion of the journey from the Holocaust to the Resurrection It negates all forms of diasporic Jewish life and culture and ignores the history of Palestine during the 2000 year long Jewish exile This narrative otherizes three main groups vis vis whom Israeliness is constituted Holocaust victims who are presented in a traumatizing manner as the stateless and therefore persecuted Jews we refuse but might become again if we lose control over Palestinian Arabs who constitute the second group of others Palestinians are racialized demonized and portrayed as our potential exterminators The third group of others comprises non European Mizrahi and Ethiopian Jews They are described as backward people who lack history or culture and must undergo constant acculturation to fit into Israel s Western society Thus a rhetoric of victimhood and power evolves and a nationalistic interpretation of the never again imperative is inculcated justifying the Occupation and oppression of Palestinians and the marginalization of non European Jews This rhetoric is conveyed multimodally through discourse genres and visual elements The present study which advocates a multidirectional memory proposes an alternative Hebrew Arabic multi voiced and poly centered curriculum that would relate the accounts of the people whom the pedagogic narrative seeks to conceal and exclude This joint curriculum will differ from the present one not only in content but also ideologically and semiotically Instead of traumatizing and urging vengeance it will encourage discussion and celebrate diversity and hybridity
