The Deorhord Hana Videen,2025-09-16 An entertaining tour of Old English words for animals from the author of The Wordhord Daily Life in Old English Many of the animals we encounter in everyday life from pets and farm animals to the wild creatures of field and forest have remained the same since medieval times But the words used to name and describe them have often changed beyond recognition starting with the Old English word for animal itself deor pronounced DAY or In The Deorhord Hana Videen presents a glittering Old English bestiary of animals real and imaginary big and small ordinary and extraordinary the good the bad and the downright baffling From gange w fran or walker weavers spiders and hasu padan or grey cloaked ones eagles to heafdu swelce mona or moon heads historians still don t know The Deorhord introduces a world both familiar and strange where ants could be monsters and panthers could be your friends where dog headed men were as real as elephants and where whales were as sneaky as wolves The curious stories behind these words provide vivid insights into the language literature and lives of those who spoke Old English the language of Beowulf more than a thousand years ago A delightful journey through the weird and wonderful world of Old English The Deorhord is a magical menagerie of new creatures and new words for the modern english reader to discover

The cicada and the bird Christopher

Tricker,2022-11-07 Chuang Tzu uses grand metaphors and charming parables to help us to stop identifying with this and that thing and to instead identify with our horizon spanning field of consciousness and our embodied sense of spirit or energy This frees us to be present with and to playfully engage with whatever things happen to appear before us His remarkable book written in Ancient China sometime around 300 BC has lain hidden for millennia in a sprawling morass misleadingly known as the Chuang Tzu Now at last it has been excavated Here for the first time in over two thousand years is Chuang Tzu s actual book crisp and poetic structured and elegant A philosophical and literary work of art

Feminism and Global Chineseness: The Cultural Production of Controversial Women Authors Aijun Zhu, 2007 This book deconstructs the controversy of globally located Chinese women authors including Maxine Hong Kingston America Wei Hui Mainland China Li Ang Taiwan and Li Bihua Hong Kong It vividly shows how these authors are trapped in a dilemma between feminism nationalism and neocolonialism complicated by the powerful influences of global popular culture This book not only engages in the much debated major issues such as gender nation narration and globalization but more profoundly it also points out the cultural and political significance of literary and cultural criticism a much neglected area of research The author's detailed examination of Chinese nationalism from the perspectives of gender and globalization shows her sharp awareness of the changing geopolitical mapping of Chineseness Critics of Chinese literature and culture will benefit from this work in this era of social and political changes

Growth and Ecosystem Services of Urban Trees Thomas Rötzer, 2019-10-23 Numerous studies indicate an accelerated growth of forest trees induced by ongoing climate change Similar trends were recently found for urban trees in major cities worldwide Studies frequently report about substantial effects of climate change and the urban heat island effect UHI on plant growth The combined effects of increasing temperatures changing precipitation patterns and extended growing season lengths in addition to increasing nitrogen deposition and higher CO₂ concentrations can increase but also reduce plant growth Closely related to this the multiple functions and services provided by urban trees may be modified Urban trees generate numerous ecosystem services including carbon storage mitigation of the heat island effect reduction of rainwater runoff pollutant filtering recreation effects shading and cooling The quantity of the ecosystem services is often closely associated with the species structure age and size of the tree as well as with a tree's vitality Therefore greening cities and particularly planting trees seems to be an effective option to mitigate climate change and the UHI The focus of this Special Issue is to underline the importance of trees as part of the urban green areas for major cities in all climate zones Empirical as well as modeling studies of urban tree growth and their services and disservices in cities worldwide are included Articles about the dynamics structures and functions of urban trees as well as the influence of climate and climate change on urban tree growth urban species composition carbon storage and biodiversity are also discussed
