Text and Image John Bateman, 2014-05-30 Text and image are used together in an increasingly flexible fashion and many disciplines and areas of study are now attempting to understand how these combinations work This introductory textbook explores and analyses the various approaches to multimodality and offers a broad interdisciplinary survey of all aspects of the text image relation It leads students into detailed discussion concerning a number of approaches that are used It also brings out their strengths and weaknesses using illustrative example analyses and raises explicit research questions to reinforce learning Throughout the book John Bateman looks at a wide range of perspectives socio semiotics visual communication psycholinguistic approaches to discourse rhetorical approaches to advertising and visual persuasion and cognitive metaphor theory Applications of the styles of analyses presented are discussed for a variety of materials including advertisements picture books comics and textbooks Requiring no prior knowledge of the area this is an accessible text for all students studying text and image or multimodality within English Language and Linguistics Media and Communication Studies Visual and Design Studies

Basics Illustration 03: Text and Image Mark 'Wigan' Williams, 2007-12-31 Basics Illustration 03 Text and Image explores the basic function of illustration the interpretation of words into pictures and the interplay of text and image as two forms of visual representation The basic principles of graphic communication are introduced through case studies and examples in which the relationships between illustration and text are analysed and explored The book features a wide range of work demonstrating diverse visual languages ideas techniques and skills It also examines the production of artefacts for example artists books graphic novels posters and handmade typography stencils graffiti and fonts designed by illustrators

Manual NGB. United States. National Guard Bureau, 1950 Image, Text, Architecture Robin Wilson, 2016-03-09 Image Text Architecture brings a radical and detailed analysis of the modern and contemporary architectural media addressing issues of architectural criticism architectural photography and the role of journal editors It covers examples as diverse as an article by British artist Paul Nash in The Architectural Review 1940 an early project by French architects Lacaton Vassal published in the journal 2G 2001 and recent photography by Hisao Suzuki for the Spanish journal El Croquis At the intersection of image and text the book also reveals the role of the utopian impulse within the architectural media drawing on theories of utopian discourse from the work of the French semiotician and art theorist Louis Marin and the American Marxist critic Fredric Jameson Through this it builds a fresh theoretical approach to journal studies revealing a hitherto unexplored dimension of latent or unconscious discourse within the media portrait of architecture The purpose of this enquiry is to highlight moments where a different type of critical voice emerges on the architectural journal page indicating the possibility of a more progressive engagement with the media as a platform for critical and speculative thinking about architecture and to rethink the journals role within architectural history

Point, Dot, Period... The Dynamics of Punctuation in Text and Image Laurence Petit, Pascale Tollance, 2016-04-26 Point Dot Period The Dynamics of Punctuation in Text and Image is a collection of twelve previously unpublished essays which explore the fundamental role played by punctuation in the two semiotic fields of text and image Whilst drawing upon a wide range of material including painting engraving photography video art poetry fiction and journalism each essay contributes to the exploration of singular uses of punctuation which highlight the complexity of what remains in all cases a silent and yet particularly eloquent mode of expression By bringing together authors from a variety of fields such as linguistics literary studies and art criticism at a time when the relation between text and image occupies a prominent place in the critical landscape this volume offers new insights into the possibility and nature of their encounter and invites the reader to focus on the material aspect of visual and textual creation This collection also offers an original approach to the works of some major artists and canonical authors whilst simultaneously making room for emerging talents

Popular Photography, 1993-03 Surrealism and Photography in Czechoslovakia Krzysztof Fijalkowski, 2017-07-05 Surrealism and Photography in Czechoslovakia On the Needles of Days sheds much needed light on the location of the greatest concentration of Surrealist photography and examines the culture and tradition within which it has taken root and flourished The volume explores a rich and important artistic output very little of which has been seen outside of its land of origin Based on extensive research at museums in Prague and Brno and many conversations with participants in and historians of the movement Krzysztof Fijalkowski Michael Richardson and Ian Walker analyse how this photographic work has developed cohesively and rigorously from the beginnings of Czech Surrealism in 1934 to the intriguing researches of the present day Czech and Slovak Surrealist group by way of mysterious veiled responses to the repressive contexts with which they were faced from the 1950s to the 1980s The main chapters ordered chronologically are intersected with shorter texts examining specific works The reader will find in this volume images that present challenges to our understanding of how photographic work has been used within surrealism pinpointing individual pictures whose dynamic charge may induce instants of compelling interrogation and disruption
