Photo-texts Andy Stafford, 2010-01-01 What do photographs want Do they need any accompaniment in today's image saturated society Can writing inflect photography or vice versa in such a way that neither medium takes precedence Or are they in constant inexorable battle with each other Taking nine case studies from the 1990s French speaking world from France North Africa and the Caribbean this book attempts to define the interaction between non fictional written text caption essay fragment poem and photographic image Having considered three categories of intermediality between text and photography the collaborative the self collaborative and the retrospective the book concludes that the dimensions of their interaction are not simple and two fold visuality versus alongside textuality but threefold and therefore complex Thus the photo text as defined here is concerned as much with orality the demotic the popular the vernacular as it is with visual and written culture That text image collaborations give space to the spoken spectral traces of human discourse suggests that the key element of the photo text is its radical provisionality Time, Narrative & the Fixed Image / Temps, narration & image fixe, 2021-10-18 This volume focuses on the relationship between time narrative and the fixed image As such it highlights renewed interest in the temporality of the fixed image probably one of the most important trends in the formal and semiotic analysis of visual media in the past decade The various essays discuss paintings the illustrated covers of books comics or graphic novels photo stories postcards television and video art as well as aesthetic practices that defy categorization such as Chris Marker's masterpiece La Jetée The range of works and practices examined is reflected in the different theoretical approaches and methods used with an emphasis on semiology and narratology and to a lesser extent aesthetics and psychoanalysis The interest of this book however does not stem exclusively from the range and scope of the artefacts examined or the methodological issues that are addressed its fundamental importance rests in the contributors' readiness to question the differentiation between fixed and moving images which all too often provides a convenient if not altogether convincing starting point for image analysis The originality and value of the contribution that Time Narrative and the Fixed Image Temps Narration et image fixe makes to the body of theoretical writing on visual media lies in this challenging and comprehensive approach The 1927-1938 Italian Archaeological Expedition to Transjordan in Renato Bartoccini's Archives Stefano Anastasio, Lucia Botarelli, 2015-04-30 This volume presents extensive photo archives from the Italian excavations and surveys carried out in Transjordan between 1927 and 1938 Spoken Image Clive Scott, 1999 The Spoken Image considers the nature of photography examining the language used in titles captions and commentaries particularly as they relate to documentary photography photojournalism and fashion photography Photo-Era Magazine, the American Journal of Photography, 1911 At the Gates of Rome Don Hollway, 2022-05-12 A dramatic retelling of the final years of the Western Roman Empire and the downfall of Rome itself from the perspective of the Roman general Stilicho and Alaric king of the Visigoths It took little more than a single generation for the centuries old Roman Empire to fall In those critical decades while Christians and pagans legions and barbarians generals and politicians squabbled over dwindling scraps of power two men former comrades on the battlefield rose to prominence on opposite sides of the great game of empire Roman general Flavius Stilicho the man behind the Roman throne dedicated himself to restoring imperial glory only to find himself struggling for his life against political foes Alaric King of the Goths desired to be a friend of Rome was betrayed by it and given no choice but to become its enemy Battling each other to a standstill these two warriors ultimately overcame their differences in order to save the empire from enemies on all sides And when one of them fell the other took such vengeance as had never been seen in history Don Hollway author of The Last Viking combines ancient chroniclers accounts of Stilicho and Alaric into an unforgettable history of betrayal politics intrigue and war for the heart and soul of the Roman Empire True to Our Native Land, Second Edition Brian K. The Future of Text and Image Ofra Amihay, Lauren Walsh, 2012-01-17 The question of the relation between the visual and the textual in literature is at the heart of an increasing number of scholarly projects and in turn the investigation of evolving visual verbal dynamics is becoming an independent discipline This volume explores these profound literary shifts through the work of twelve talented and in some cases emerging scholars who study text and image relations in diverse forms and contexts The inter medial conjunctures investigated in this book play with and against the traditional roles of the visual and the verbal The Future of Text and Image presents explorations of the incorporation of visual elements into works of literature of visual writing modes and of the textuality and literariness of images It focuses on the special potential literature offers for the combination of these two functions Alongside examinations of major forms and genres such as memoirs novels and poetry this volume expands the discussion of text and image relations into more marginal forms for instance collage books the PostSecret collections of anonymous postcards and digital poetry In other words while exploring the destiny of text and image as an independent discipline this volume simultaneously looks at the very literal future of text and image forms in an ever changing technological reality The essays in this book will help to define the emergent practices and politics of this growing field of study and at the same time reflect the tremendous significance of the visual in today s image culture film makers Its spiralling narrative of post nuclear war time travel narrative has influenced many other films including the Terminator series and Terry Gilliam s Hollywood remake Twelve Monkeys 1995 But as Marker rarely gave interviews little is really known about the origins of La Jet e or the ideas behind it In this groundbreaking study Chris Darke draws on rare archival material including previously unpublished correspondence and production documents to examine the making of the film He explores how Marker s only fiction film was influenced both by his early work as a writer and by Alfred Hitchcock s Vertigo 1958 and considers how La Jet e s imagery can be seen to echo throughout Marker s extraordinarily diverse oeuvre

Chris Marker Sarah Cooper,2021-06-15 Since the early 1950s Chris Marker has embraced different filmmaking styles as readily as he has new technologies and has broadened conceptions of the documentary in distinctly personal ways He has travelled around the world tracking political upheavals and historic events as well as unearthing the stories buried under official reporting This globetrotting filmmaker testifies to his six decades on the move through a passionate devotion to the moving image Yet from the outset his filmic images reveal a fascination with stillness It is at this juncture of mobility and immobility that Sarah Cooper situates her comprehensive study of Marker s films She pays attention to the central place that photographs occupy in his work as well as to the emergence in his filming of statuary painting and other static images including the film still and his interest in fixed frame shooting She engages with key debates in photographic and film theory in order to argue that a different conception of time emerges from his filmic explorations of stasis In detailed readings of each of his films including Le souvenir d un avenir and La Jetee Sans soleil and Level 5 Cooper charts Marker s concern with mortality in varied historical and geographical contexts which embraces the fragility of the human race along with that of the planet
