J. Smith, 2017 American Witness is the first comprehensive look at the life of a man who's as mysterious and evasive as he is prolific and gifted Leaving his rigid Switzerland for the more fluid United States in 1947 Frank found himself at the red hot social center of bohemian New York in the 50s and 60s becoming friends with everyone from Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg and Peter Orlovsky to photographer Walker Evans actor Zero Mostel painter Willem de Kooning filmmaker Jonas Mekas Bob Dylan writer Rudy Wurlitzer jazz musicians Ornette Coleman and Charles Mingus and more Frank roamed the country with his young family taking roughly 27 000 photographs and collecting 83 of them into what is still his most famous work The Americans His was an America nobody had seen before and if it was harshly criticized upon publication for its portrait of a divided country the collection gradually grew to be recognized as a transformative American vision and then he turned his back on certain success giving up photography to reinvent himself as a film and video maker Frank helped found the American independent cinema of the 1960s and made a legendary film with the Rolling Stones Today the nonagenarian is an embodiment of restless creativity and a symbol of what it costs to remain original in America his life defined by never repeating himself never being satisfied American Witness is a portrait of a singular artist and the country that he saw Dust jacket American Vision Bill Fortney, John Shaw, David Middleton, Wayne Lynch, 1999 Selected from entries submitted to a contest sponsored by Outdoor Photographer magazine the photos in this collection represent work by some of today's best amateur nature photographers 180 color illustrations Mathew Brady Robert Wilson, 2014-09-23 A portrait of the visual historian illuminates his role in establishing photography as a valued documenting tool analyzing his portraits of period dignitaries and his self-sacrificing effort to capture images of the Civil War
