

The image shows a variety of vintage photographic accessories arranged on a blue surface. At the top, there are several boxes and containers, including a large orange box on the left, a smaller orange box in the center, and a yellow box on the right. Below these, the text "A Shire book" is printed. The main title "Photographic Accessories 1890-1970" is prominently displayed in the center. Below the title, the author's name "Robert White" is printed. At the bottom, there is a large collection of various items, including lenses, filters, and boxes. A large orange box is on the left, and a yellow box is on the right. In the center, there are several lenses and filters, some in boxes and some loose. A small black box is on the right, and a long, thin object, possibly a lens or a filter, is at the bottom right. The items are arranged in a way that showcases the variety of accessories available during this period.
