Ribemont, Patrick Daum, Phillip Prodger, 2006 From its earliest days photography could not escape the pictorial traditions that had gone before it This book the first comprehensive study of Pictorialism in Europe analyses the remarkable diversity of approaches taken by photographers across the continent whose practice was infused with contemporary debate about photography's relationship to art. Written by an international team of art and photography historians, Impressionist Camera examines the ways in which practitioners realized their pictorial vision from the re-creation of Academic painting in photography to the use of soft focus to lend images an impressionistic quality. Also explored are the cross currents with photography in America where Pictorialism went on to flourish including the seminal work of Alfred Stieglitz.

Bauhaus 1919-1933 Barry Bergdoll, Leah Dickerman, 2009. The Bauhaus, the school of art and design founded in Germany in 1919 and shut down by the Nazis in 1933, brought together artists, architects, and designers in an extraordinary conversation about modern art. Bauhaus 1919-1933, published to accompany a major multimedia exhibition at MoMA, is the first comprehensive treatment of the subject by MoMA since 1938 and offers a new generational perspective on the 20th century's most influential experiment in artistic education. It brings together works in a broad range of mediums including industrial design, furniture, architecture, graphics, photography, textiles, ceramics, theatre and costume design, and painting and sculpture, many of which have rarely if ever been seen outside of Germany. Featuring about 400 colour plates and a rich range of documentary images, this publication includes two overarching images by the exhibition's curators, Leah Dickerman and Barry Bergdoll, concise interpretive essays on key objects by over twenty leading scholars, and an illustrated narrative chronology.
